MPS is pleased to announce the selection of Dr. Mary Galvin as the Division Director, Division of Materials Research (DMR), Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences. Dr. Galvin is currently a Program Officer in DMR, where she is responsible for Materials Research Science and Engineering Centers, the I-Corps program, and the Designing Materials to Revolutionize and Engineer the Future (DMREF) program. Dr. Galvin earned her Sc.D. in Polymers/Materials Science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1984. She previously held positions as a Distinguished Member of the Technical Staff at Bell Laboratories and as a Distinguished Professor of Materials Science at the University of Delaware. Most recently, she worked as a Program Manager in Basic Energy Sciences (BES) at the Department of Energy. Dr. Galvin is a member of the Materials Research Society, the American Physical Society, and the American Chemical Society.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Galvin to her new role in MPS.

Celeste M. Rohlifing, Ph.D.
Assistant Director (Acting)
