MISSION STATEMENT

The United States Navy Band's mission is to provide musical support to the President of the United States, the Department of the Navy, and other senior military and government officials. Through ceremonies, national tours, public concerts, and recordings, the United States Navy Band inspires patriotism, elevates esprit de corps, enhances Navy awareness and public relations, supports recruiting and retention efforts, preserves our nation's musical heritage, and projects a positive Navy image at home and abroad.

QUICK FACTS

The United States Navy Band is the premier musical organization of America's Navy.

There are 172 enlisted musicians in the Navy Band, led by four officers.

The commanding officer of the U.S. Navy Band is Capt. Brian O. Walden (bio).

There are six major performing ensembles in the Navy Band: the Concert Band, Ceremonial Band, Sea Chanters chorus, Commodores jazz ensemble, Country Current country/bluegrass ensemble, and the Cruisers popular music group.

The Navy Band is based in Washington, D.C., at the historic Washington Navy Yard.

Ensembles from the Navy Band are touring nationally 12 weeks each year.

Sailors in the Navy Band are full-time professional musicians.

Almost all of the Sailors in the Navy Band have undergraduate degrees in music, and most have graduate degrees.
