Background

On February 17, 2009, President Obama signed the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5). Pursuant to ARRA, the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) was appropriated a combined $48.1 billion in funding for the purpose of stimulating the economy, creating jobs and investing in the nation's transportation infrastructure. ARRA also appropriated $20 million to the DOT for Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) bonding assistance.

The DOT, Office of the Secretary (OST), Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) is pleased to announce the availability of a DBE ARRA Bonding Assistance Reimbursable Fee Program (BAP). Under the DBE ARRA BAP, DOT will provide direct reimbursement of bonding premiums and fees incurred by DBEs competing for, or performing on, eligible transportation infrastructure projects receiving DOT ARRA funding.

The bonding assistance provided by the DBE ARRA BAP will allow DBEs with traditionally less working capital than large transportation-related contractors to perform on transportation infrastructure projects receiving ARRA funding from any DOT Operating Administration, such as Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Federal Transit Administration (FTA), Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), Federal Railroad Administration (FRA), and the Maritime Administration (MARAD)..

The term DBE means a for-profit small business concern that is owned and controlled by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individual(s), including women, and is set forth in Title 49 Code of Federal Regulation Part 26 (49 CFR 26).

A surety bond is a three-party instrument between a surety, the contractor and the project owner. The agreement binds the contractor to comply with the terms and conditions of a contract. If the contractor is unable to successfully perform the contract, the surety assumes the contractor's responsibilities. Surety companies charge a premium fee to all contractors to ensure the surety company's financial backing and guarantee.

Eligibility

To be eligible for a performance, payment, or bid/proposal bond fee cost reimbursement under the DBE ARRA BAP, an applicant must:

- Be a certified DBE in accordance with Title 49 Code of Federal Regulation Part 26 (49CFR26);
- Have obtained a performance, payment, or bid/proposal surety bond on a project receiving ARRA funding from DOT during the period of August 28, 2009 through September 8, 2010; and
- Have a current Dun and Bradstreet Number (DUNS#) and be registered in the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) at www.ccr.gov, complete with bank information for electronic payment.

How the Program Works

- The DBE selects an approved surety company listed in the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Listing of Approved Sureties \(Department Circular 570\) and establishes a business relationship.
- The DBE submits a bond application to the surety company/agent in accordance with the surety company's requirements. In the event the DBE is participating in the Small Business Administration's (SBA) Surety Bond Guarantee Program \(SBGP\), the contractor will comply with SBA's requirements.
- Upon approval of the bond, the DBE will pay all required bonding premiums or fees. The DBE will also pay SBA's principal fee.
- If the DBE does not get reimbursed for these premiums/fees from the contractor/project owner then it can submit an application for Reimbursement of Bond Fees to DOT.

Application Process

To receive reimbursement from DOT for the bonding premium/fees paid to the surety company and possibly SBA, the DBE will be required to submit an application for reimbursement of bond fees to DOT. A separate application must be submitted for each bond for which the DBE is seeking reimbursement. Among other things, the DBE will be required to submit the following information:

- A completed and signed application.
- A copy of the bond.
- A copy of the contract.
- DBE certification letter from the DBE certification office in their state and a current annual affidavit.
- A letter from the federal, state or local transportation authority, on their letterhead, indicating the DBE is a prime contractor or a subcontractor and the federal project number.
- A copy of their invoice(s) from the surety company and if applicable, SBA and cancelled checks or other proof of payment of the bond fees in support of the total amount claimed for reimbursement.
