

November 6, 2008

Laura L. Rogers, Director
SMART Office
810 Seventh Street, NW., 8th floor
Washington, DC 20571

Dear Director Rogers,

I am pleased to inform you that the SMART Office has won an Association of Marketing & Communication Professionals 2008 MarCom Awards Honorable Mention for SMART Watch in the E-newsletter category.

The MarCom Awards are administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communication Professionals (AMCP). AMCP is comprised of thousands of creative professionals who sponsor the MarCom Awards, an international creative competition that recognizes outstanding achievements by marketing and communication professionals. Submissions come from a full range of marketing and communications organizations. Entrants include individual communicators, PR firms, media conglomerates, and Fortune 500 companies.

Winners were selected from more than 200 categories in seven forms of media and communication efforts—marketing, publications, marketing/promotion, public service/pro bono, creativity, and electronic/interactive.

The SMART Watch e-newsletter was launched in August 2008 in an effort to electronically disseminate news related to the SMART office.

I am so pleased that the Lockheed/National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) team had the opportunity to partner with Dawn Doran and Lara Pierce at the SMART Office on this significant project. We look forward to the Office's continued success in achieving its mission to support enhanced standards for sex offender registration and notification across the country.

Congratulations and best wishes,

Dolores Kozloski
Sr. Program Manager, Public Safety Services & Solutions