

April 19, 2012

Global eLine

Rock Island Arsenal leadership hosts Iowa governor

Iowa Gov. Terry Branstad and Lt. Gov. Kimberly Reynolds visited Rock Island Arsenal, Ill., March 1 to learn more about the Arsenal, its tenant organizations and its importance to... ➔

Army uses dynamic equipping solutions

"Getting the right equipment to the right people at the right time takes some dynamic thinking and dynamic decision support tools," said Maj. Gen. Patricia E. McQuiston, commanding general of ASC... ➔

MRAP all-terrain vehicle UIK installations pass the 1,000 mark

The intense effort to return mine-resistant ambush-protected all-terrain vehicles with new survivability and automotive upgrades to the maneuver units meant there was no stop... ➔

LOGCAP-A contractor supports COIN strategy with hiring initiative

One of LOGCAP-Afghanistan's contractors is continuing an initiative to hire trained Afghan workers through a partnership with the Korean Vocational Training Center at Bagram Airfield... ➔

New communications a 'SNAP' for 403rd in Korea

A two-man team from the U.S. Army Sustainment Command G6 Current Operations Division, arrived in Daegu, Korea, Feb. 1 to train members of the 403rd Army Field Support Brigade in the use of its new SIPR-NIPR... ➔

Contractors now process through Indiana's Camp Atterbury under ASC auspices

A March 1 ribbon-cutting ceremony 1 symbolically marked the point that all deploying and redeploying... ➔

ANA Maintenance mentorship program graduates 17 Soldiers
 The largest group of Soldiers to complete the 401st Army Field Support Brigade's Afghan National Army Maintenance Mentorship Program received certificates and coins... ➔

ASC supports Civil Air Patrol dining out
 Davenport Civil Air Patrol Composite Squadron #13041 held its annual dining out and 2011 awards presentation while marking a change of command Feb. 18... ➔

Horrors of World War I explained by soldier-poet, music
 War is hell; its horrors brought to light in literature, art and music. Usually portrayed as filled with fire and brimstone, hell can also be a cold, wet and very muddy place... ➔

Army befriends youth home
 An Army unit in Area I that recently started a goodwill relationship with a local youth home took things another step Feb. 3 when it hosted the youngsters for a high-energy afternoon of bowling at Camp Hovey... ➔

ASC Soldier recognized for outstanding academics
 Master Sgt. Reginald Hurt, an engineer with the Distribution Management Center, is being recognized as the outstanding academic graduate for 2012 from Grantham University... ➔

Photo Links

RIA 150th Anniversary
 2012 marks 150 years of service to the nation at Rock Island Arsenal. The island's uses have ranged from being a POW camp for rebel soldiers during the Civil War, to producing armaments for two world wars, to equipping today's service members on the front lines. ▶