

July 12, 2012

Global eLine

402nd AFSB receives Army Prepositioned Stock 5 equipment

It's homeward bound. The 402nd Army Field Support Brigade began receiving Army Prepositioned Stock 5 from the 1st Squadron, 1st Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division, in May... ➔

227th QM Soldiers volunteer for duty with the 401st

Fifty-two Soldiers from Fort Campbell, Ky., hit a trifecta of sorts by working in three separate theaters during a one-year deployment... ➔

METCOP debuts in Operation Enduring Freedom

An automated tool to help manage the eventual drawdown of the Materiel Enterprise's personnel and equipment in the Combined Joint Operations Area-Afghanistan that was developed by Lt. Col. Joyce B. Stewart... ➔

Sailors receive Army Achievement Medals

Twelve Sailors from Navy Expeditionary Logistics Support Group working under Army Central Command in Kuwait who were temporarily assigned to AFSBn-Bagram, 401st Army Field Support Brigade, received... ➔

White House 'Champion of Change's' work continues to reap benefits in OEF

Lt. Col. Alan C. Samuels was named a "Champion of Change" by the White House on April 19 in recognition of his work while deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom... ➔

ASC historian speaks at Port Byron Historical Society

Army Sustainment Command Historian, George Eaton, spoke to the Port Byron Historical Society and Boy Scout Troop 351 about the history of Rock Island Arsenal and its 150th anniversary celebration... ➔

The dogs of war: saving lives but paying the price

Can courage be measured in a canine heart? Can a dog actually be a hero? Take Gabe for instance, a yellow Labrador Retriever, who has three Army Commendation Medals and an Army Achievement Medal. I...

Photo Links

401st AFSB working mission in Afghanistan

ASC historian speaks at Danish Sisterhood lodge

ASC presents colors at River Bandits game

ASC Army Birthday Ball 2012

Maj. Gen. Patricia E. McQuiston, commanding general of Army Sustainment Command, conducts a tandem jump with Sgt. 1st Class Noah Watts, during the Rock Island Arsenal's 150th Anniversary Celebration July 7. The Army Parachute Team, the Golden Knights, were just one of the many attractions at the event.

See the next issue of the Global eLine for more coverage!

Photo by Galen Putnam, ASC Public Affairs

