

October 2, 2012

Global eLine

Gold Star family members, Korean War, WW II-era vets honored with trip to D.C.

Just like before, they left proud and came back heroes. Ninety-two Iowa-Illinois World War II- and Korean War-era veterans flew to Washington, D.C., toured the capital area...

Army Sustainment Command gains new mission, becomes logistics center of gravity

The transfer of Directorate of Logistics (DOL) operations from the U.S. Army Installation Management...

Wash racks recycle thousands of gallons of water in Afghanistan

401st Army Field Support Brigade personnel using five self-contained wash racks at AFSBn-Kandahar have been washing vehicles nearly around the clock since March 30...

APS-3 Army strategic flotilla rebuild complete, meets Army's 2020 strategy

The rebuild of the Army Prepositioned Stocks Afloat (APS-3) Army Strategic Flotilla (ASF) is now complete. The United States Naval Ship Watson was uploaded from Sept. 10-19...

ASC employee donates flag to local elementary school

An Army Sustainment Command employee's simple gesture turned into a celebration as a donated flag became the centerpiece of a local school's 9-11 remembrance ceremony Sept. 11...

Brig. Gen. Gamble visits Joint Base Charleston

Brig. Gen. Duane Gamble, Army Sustainment Command deputy commanding general, along with Brig. Gen. Edward Dorman III, director of Logistics Operations, Readiness, Force Integration and Strategy...

402nd AFSB issues APS-5 equipment to 2-18th FA Regt

In keeping with its successful reputation, the 402nd Army Field Support Brigade conducted another issue of equipment from the Army Prepositioned Stock-5 to the 2nd Battalion, 18th Field Artillery...

Bailey assumes role as battalion's senior NCO at Bagram Air Field

Sgt. Maj. Dannette D. Bailey assumes responsibility as Army Field Support Battalion-Bagram's senior enlisted Soldier from Sgt. Maj. Donald R. Robertson during...

Transporter receives highest Transportation Corps honor

"Whoever shall behold the image of Saint Christopher shall not faint or fall on that day," states the Legend of Saint Christopher from the U.S. Army Transportation Corps' induction ceremony narrative. The legend...

POW/MIA Sept. 2012

RIA recently joined other installations and organizations around the world in commemorating POW/MIA Recognition Day. ASC's Commanding General Brig. Gen. John Wharton spoke of the need to remember our missing comrades...

Honor Flight Sept. 2012

They served their country during wartime, and many still bear mental and physical scars from the conflicts. They are World War II and Korean War veterans, all of them getting along in years. That's why events like Honor Flights are so important...

Photo Links

Brig. Gen. Wharton speaks at RIA POW/MIA ceremony

ASC commanding general signals start of Quad Cities Marathon

403rd AFSB participates in Exercise Ulchi-Freedom Guardian 2012

ASC historian speaks at Philanthropic Educational Organization meeting

