

The GRAMMY Foundation, MusiCares
and the National Institute on Drug Abuse announce the
2011 Teen Music Contest
October 10, 2011

The GRAMMY Foundation and MusiCares announce their second annual Teen Substance Abuse Awareness through Music contest, in collaboration with National Drug Facts Week 2011 and the National Institute on Drug Abuse.

The contest invites musicians, ages 14–18, to compete for awesome prizes by submitting an original song and/or music video promoting a healthy and drug-free lifestyle. Winners will be announced during National Drug Facts Week and prizes include: an invitation to Los Angeles to attend the 54th Annual GRAMMY Awards Rehearsal Backstage Experience; posting of winning submissions on the popular sites GRAMMY365, the MTV Act Blog, and AboveTheInfluence.com; and cash awards from the Visions Adolescent Treatment Center in Malibu, Calif.

Entries must be submitted to MusiCares, Attn. Erica Krusen, 3030 Olympic Blvd., Santa Monica, Calif., 90404, and postmarked no later than Oct. 10. For contest rules, and more information on National Drug Facts Week, visit <http://drugfactsweek.drugabuse.gov/>.

National Drug Facts Week (NDFW)
October 31 – November 6, 2011

National Drug Facts Week (NDFW) is a health observance week for teens to shatter the myths about drugs and drug abuse through community-based events and activities.

How can you get involved? Support your community by working with teens to organize a local NDFW event. NIDA provides a step-by-step event toolkit, including a list of activities, free publications and resources to complement your event, an interactive quiz, and much more. For more information or questions, please contact us at drugfacts@nida.nih.gov.
