Dear Mr President:

My husband and I watched your appearance on T.V. in Houston just recently. We admired your candid cool way of handling the interview.

Our enemies have deceitfully pushed you into a corner. They have forgotten the great things you have done for your country. But keep up your courage, thousands of us are praying for you. And, please, do not resign. That would be cowardly, in spite of what misled Sen. James Buckley suggests.

P.S. The conservative element of the "Gop" is working for the defeat of Sen. McGovern in So. Dak.

Very Sincerely,
 Mr & Mrs. Clifford A. Foster
