

U.S. Department of Commerce

Tammy L. Journet Deputy for Procurement Performance Excellence & Infrastructure Support

Ms. Journet is the Deputy for Procurement Performance Excellence & Infrastructure Support in the Office of Acquisition Management in the Department of Commerce where she leads the Department's acquisition savings initiatives.

Ms. Journet has over 20 years of federal acquisition experience, most recently as the Deputy Director of the Acquisition and Grants Office of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), a bureau of the U.S. Department of Commerce. She is responsible for the acquisition and financial assistance activities of NOAA. The bureau is dedicated to understanding and predicting changes in the environment and to conserve and manage coastal and marine resources.

Ms. Journet has enjoyed service in both federal civilian agencies and the Department of Defense where she was trained in lean six sigma techniques. She is excited to bring her passion for federal acquisition and cost savings strategies together in her new position.

Ms. Journet was born and reared in Southern California where she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Business Management from California Lutheran University (2000) and a Master in Business Administration from Pepperdine University (2004). She is a member of the federal Senior Executive Service and the Department of Defense's Acquisition Professional Community. Ms. Journet and her husband reside in Fairfax, Virginia.
