

Positions Available

There are several different positions available: Patrol Officer, Field Training Officer, Working Dog Handler, Kennelmaster, Desk Sergeant, Patrol Supervisor, Watch Commander, Assistant Services Officer, Assistant Operations Officer, Services Officer, Operations Officer, Physical Security Inspector, Physical Security Supervisor, and Deputy Police Chief.

Pay and Benefits

For qualified applicants, the Marine Corps is offering competitive salaries and exceptional benefits. Benefits include—

- Retirement Plan
- Health Insurance
- Life Insurance
- Long-Term Care Insurance
- Flexible Spending Plan
- Annual Leave
- Sick Leave
- Career Development
- Military Service Credit

Training

All Police Officers for all positions undergo 8 weeks of training in a Marine Corps Police Academy at the hiring installation. The course prepares the Police Officer to become a valued member of the team at the assigned installation. Police Officers undergo refresher training periodically to maintain proficiency in required skills like weapons qualification. Those selected for specific positions will attend other training such as Special Reaction Team Training, Physical Security School, Investigation Courses, Working Dog School, and Traffic Accident Investigation School.

Conditions of Employment

Marine Corps Civilian Police Officers must be physically fit at all times to ensure they are able to protect the community members they serve and meet the physical demands of the job.

For employment, you must be able to meet and maintain these standards and requirements:

- Physical Agility Test
- Physical Health Examination
- Drug Test
- Body Mass Index
- Background Checks
- USMC Police Academy Graduate
- Prerequisite: minimum 1 year of law enforcement or security experience or educational equivalent

Where to Apply

Log on to www.usmccle.com for job posting links, tools, and application procedures.

Marine Corps Civilian Police

The Marine Corps is always looking for a few good people. If you have pride in yourself and what you do, Marine Corps Civilian Police may be for you.

Civilian Police

The Marine Corps is looking for a few good people. In fact, they are looking for many good people. The Marine Corps has adopted a plan to hire approximately 1,200 additional Civilian Police Officers. This expansion of civilian policing will reduce the operational stress on Marine Corps Military Police and will enhance security and police services across the Marine Corps.

The Marine Corps initiated a Civilian Police force in 2005 and established Marine Corps Police Departments in Albany, GA; Jacksonville, FL; and Barstow, CA. The new police officer hires will be spread across four years with a target of hiring 400 police officers in FY08, 300 in FY09–10, and 182 in FY11. Police Officers will be working side-by-side with Marine Corps Military Police at Marine Corps installations across the United States.

Who Can Apply

The Marine Corps welcomes retired and former Marines, members from other branches of the military, and qualified men and women who have no experience in the military, but wish to serve as Civilian Police Officers. We are looking for the best-qualified candidates, regardless of the source. The goal is to form an elite law enforcement agency that is well-trained, disciplined, and responsive to the Marine Corps Community, and shares in the reputation of the force it protects and serves.

Work Locations

Positions are open at the following Marine Corps installations:

Marine Corps Base (MCB) Quantico, VA; Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Cherry Point, NC; MCB Camp Lejeune, NC; MCAS New River, NC; MCAS Beaufort, SC; Marine Corps Recruit Depot (MCRD), SC; MCRD San Diego, CA; MCAS Miramar, CA; MCB Camp Pendleton, CA; Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center Twenty-Nine Palms, CA; and MCAS Yuma, AZ. The existing Marine Corps police departments at Albany, GA; Jacksonville, FL; and Barstow, CA, continue to hire police officers also.

