Headquarters ANG Title 10 3 years Statutory Tour at NGB/JA (Arlington Hall Station, VA). Must be Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC) 51J3/4 Duties and Responsibilities: Provides CONUS wide expert advice and litigation support in civilian personnel matters, including discrimination complaints, adverse actions, and labor-management relations. Serves as a senior attorney who represents the Air and Army National Guard and National Guard Bureau in all employment-related litigation, including class-action litigation, in Federal District Courts and Courts of Appeals, the Equal Opportunity Commission, the Federal Labor Relations Authority, and the Merit Systems Protection Board. Solely responsible for case strategy and tactics; preparing pre-hearing motions and petitions; identifying relevant witnesses and documents via discovery procedures, including interrogatories and depositions. Conducts research in connection with pending cases and analyzes factual and civil litigation. Ensures that Army and Air National Guard and National Guard Bureau supervisors, commanders, and personnel specialists receive timely and effective advice and assistance on civilian employee disciplinary actions, civilian employee discrimination complaints, and labor relations issues, and that the Army and Air National Guard and the National Guard Bureau receives the highest level of representation in administrative and judicial litigation. Provides advice and assistance to U.S. Attorneys and Department of Justice trial and appellate attorneys in varied and diverse civil litigation in which the Air National Guard and the National Guard Bureau are defendants. Since cases involve extremely complex legal and factual issues in developing areas of the law in which there are frequently changing precedents, the incumbent must exercise independent judgment involving trends in the law and department policy. Participates in formulation of Air National Guard and National Guard-wide policy and represents the National Guard at high level policy discussions.
