AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined not to review an initial determination (“ID”) (Order No. 14) issued by the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) granting complainant Renesas Technology Corporation’s (“Renesas”) motion for partial summary determination that it had satisfied the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This investigation was instituted on March 1, 2007, based on a complaint filed by Renesas. The complaint, as supplemented, alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain dynamic random access memory devices and products containing the same by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,115,344 and 7,116,128. The complaint named as respondents Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd., of Seoul, Korea, and Samsung Electronics America, Inc., of Ridgefield Park, New Jersey (collectively, “Samsung”).

Renesas filed its motion for partial summary determination on the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement on October 4, 2007. Respondents filed an opposition to, and the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of, the motion on October 22, 2007. The subject ID granted Renesas’s motion on December 6, 2007, finding that the activities of Renesas’s licensee satisfy the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. No petitions for review were filed. The Commission has determined not to review the subject ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. § 210.42).

By order of the Commission.
