

FAMILY TREE MILITARY FAMILY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS

Adams, Arapahoe and Jefferson Counties are honored and proud to serve the needs of military families through Family Tree, a not-for-profit agency. Since 1976, Family Tree has provided a broad range of services to youth and families in crisis in the Denver Metro area.

The mission of Family Tree is to help people overcome child abuse, domestic violence and homelessness to become safe, strong and self-reliant.

Family Tree Military Family Assistance Programs provide military families with community services, resources and limited financial assistance. This support includes employment services, housing, food, clothing, counseling and education to aid in the stabilization of these families.

Program participants must reside in Adams, Arapahoe or Jefferson County and meet one of the following criteria:

- Veterans and active duty personnel with children
- Spouses and ex-spouses with children of active duty personnel or veterans
- Widows/widowers with children of veterans
- Active duty personnel and veterans who are non-custodial parents
