

Career Center

Identify the VA career best suited to your talents and interests, with the help of the most robust Veteran-focused employment tools in the federal government today.

Connecting Veterans to Career Success

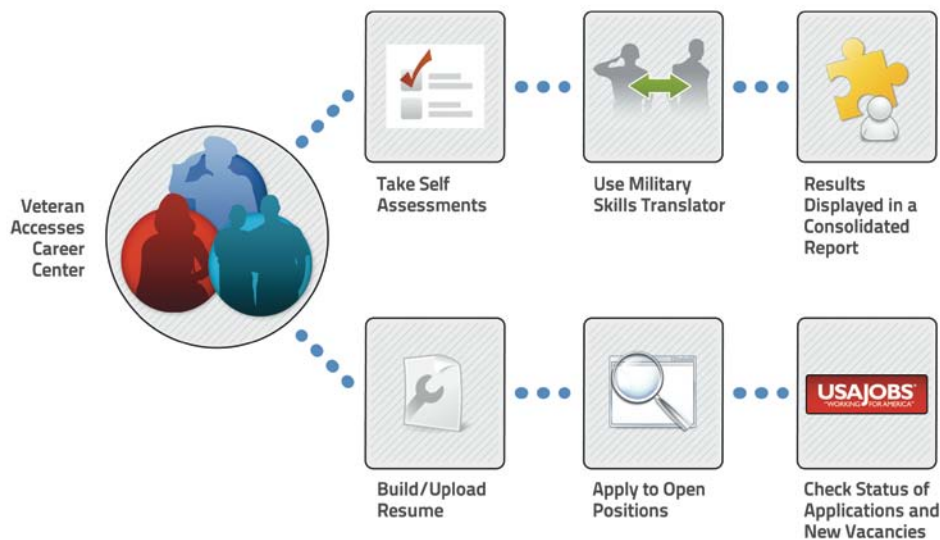

Considering civilian employment with the federal government after your military service? Unsure how your military experience translates to civilian jobs? Need help communicating your skills to a potential employer?

Look no further. The VA for Vets Career Center helps Veterans find the right VA career opportunities matched to their experience, skills and interests. From translating military skills to providing self-assessments and job search results best suited to your background, the Career Center will guide you toward a rewarding career serving our nation's Veterans and families.

Your Gateway to VA Careers

An integrated job search and career building platform, the VA for Vets Career Center is designed to take the guesswork out of entering the civilian workforce. Use the Career Center tools to evaluate your personal strengths, identify civilian competencies, view the best-fit VA positions and match all results to open jobs at VA.

And that's not all. Once you log in to the Career Center, a customized dashboard is populated that reflects your activities and job updates in real time. A resume builder helps you create an easy-to-read resume for applying to VA positions through www.USAJOBS.gov, the official one-stop source for federal jobs and employment information.

Discover your civilian calling and join an agency ready to invest in your future.

How It Works

Select any tool in the Career Center to begin and add as much information as you'd like. By entering more details, your results are tailored to reveal the career matches that most closely align with your professional goals. Use some or all of these Career Center options:

- Assess your military talents, training and experience to learn which civilian jobs best fit your background. You will be able to identify and match your strengths and interests to available positions.
- Translate your active-duty skills into civilian-friendly language. With the ability to drill down to sub-specialty levels, the Career Center's military skills translator is the most robust and thorough option within the federal government.
- Build a resume that integrates your translated skills, assessment results and employment history using civilian-friendly language. You can upload your new resume to the Vet Database to allow VA recruiters to find you or use it to apply for another job.
- Create a marketable professional profile of your qualifications and highlight the unique abilities that make you an ideal candidate for VA employment. At any time, you can return to the Career Center to update and expand your profile.
- Explore available VA job opportunities and apply through www.USAJOB.S.gov. You can manage and save multiple jobs, job searches, and resumes all in one place.

As a civilian professional, your career options are endless. The Career Center will help you find the right job at VA, which is committed to investing in your continued success. Let VA for Vets help you begin a new career with confidence.

For more information or to contact a coach, visit www.VAforVets.VA.gov

Where do you want to go?

Healthcare, IT, administration, communications, security, finance, human resources, trade and more: VA needs your talents to help us transform into a high-performing organization, equipped to serve millions of Veterans and their families. See how you can put your insight and experience to work while enjoying the benefits and security of a civilian career.

