

Law Enforcement Examination

Updated and Expanded

Now available for government agencies:
The Office of Personnel Management's (OPM's) updated and expanded Law Enforcement Exam.

The two hour cognitive assessment measures performance and learning potential to ensure entry-level applicants have the appropriate capabilities and competencies to successfully learn and execute law enforcement job functions.

FEATURES OF THE LAW ENFORCEMENT EXAM

Updated to Ensure Applicability:

OPM's Industrial-Organizational Psychologists conducted an extensive validation process for the assessment, including:

- Utilized job analysis results from OPM's government-wide Law Enforcement study
- Confirmed competencies assessed in the exam by conducting a review of the OPM study
- Updated test items to reflect a more current context

Expanded Coverage of Law Enforcement

Positions:

The assessment has been developed for the Police Officer (GS-0083) position and may be applicable to related law enforcement occupations.

OPM Industrial-Organizational Psychologists will work with agencies interested in using this exam for the covered position series and additional occupations. This can be done easily by submitting agency position descriptions or other related supporting job analysis information.

The OPM Industrial-Organizational Psychologists are also available to work with agency contacts on overall assessment strategy to ensure occupational fit.
