Bunker Harbor Navigation Project

Bunker Harbor in Gouldsboro, one of several small harbors located along the shore of Schoodic Peninsula, is about three miles southwest of Prospect Harbor and nine miles east of Bar Harbor. Lobstering is the principal commercial activity.

Completed in 1968, the project consists of a six-foot-deep anchorage, three acres in area, in the inner harbor. The anchorage was constructed under Section 107 of the Corps' Continuing Authorities Program.
