West Virginia Selected Census Highlights

CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE VOLUE DESEDONSIBILITY

YOUR VOICE. YOUR FUTURE. YOUR RESPONSIBILITY.

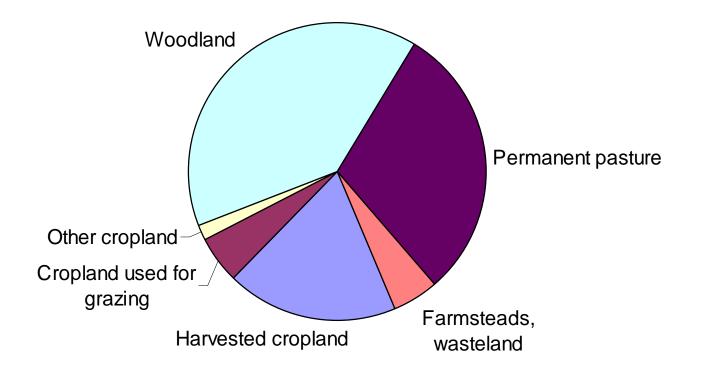

200

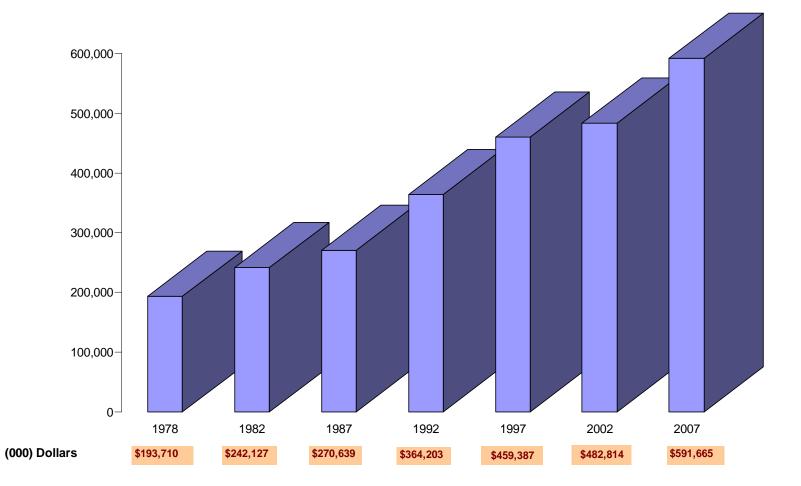

West Virginia Census of Agriculture Number of Farms: 1978 - 2007*

*Years 1978 - 1992 not adjusted for coverage

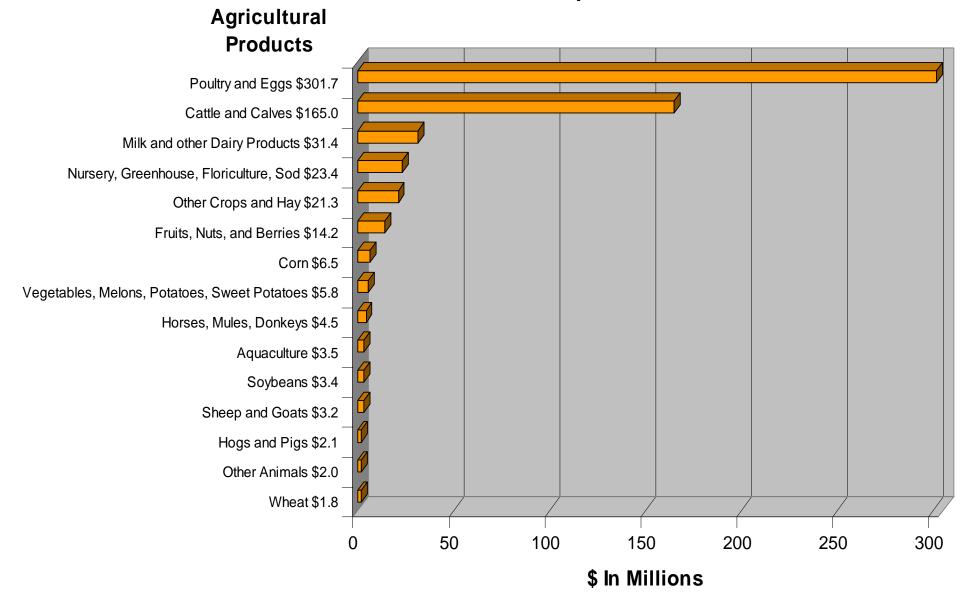

2007 West Virginia Farm Land

Market Value of Agricultural Products Sold 1978 - 2007

West Virginia Market Value of Agricultural Products Sold by Category: Top 15 Commodities

Value of Sales Less than $2,500 Farms 52.6 Sales 1.6 $2,500 to 4,999 Farms 15.0 Sales 2.1 Percent of Farms Percent of Sales Farms 12.3 $5,000 to 9,999 Sales 3.4 Farms 8.7 $10,000 to 19,999 Sales 4.8 Farms 2.1 $20,000 to 24,999 Sales 1.8 Farms 4.4 $25,000 to 49,999 Sales 6.1 Farms 1.8 $50,000 to 99,999 Sales 4.9 Farms 1.3 $100,000 to 249,999 Sales 8.6 Farms 0.7 $250,000 to 499,000 Sales 10.4 Farms 0.6 $500,000 to 999,000 Sales 16.6

$1,000,000 or more

0.0

10.0

20.0

West Virginia Percent of Farms and Market Value of Agricultural Products Sold - 2007

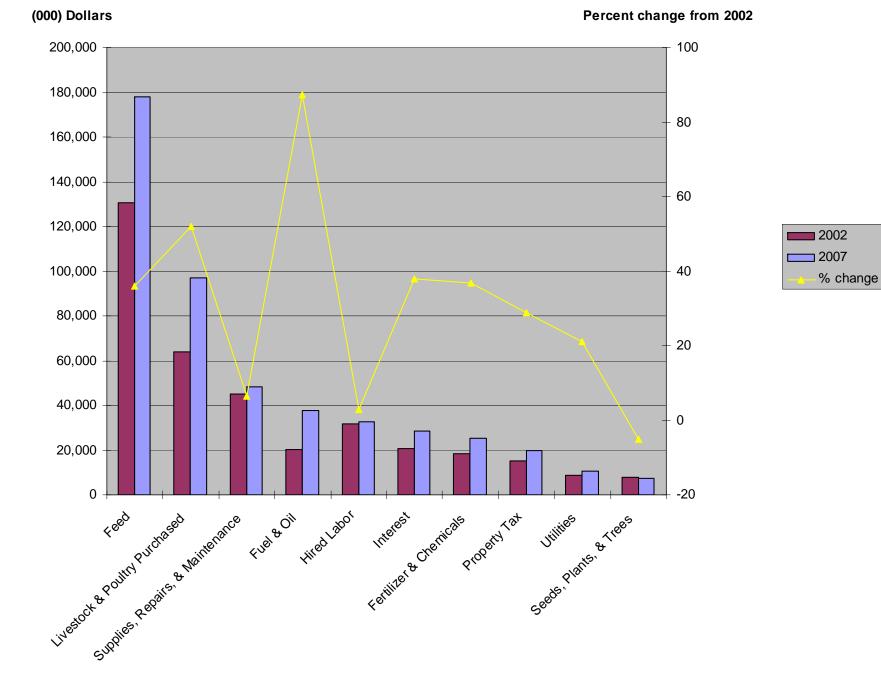

30.0 Percent Farms 0.5

Sales 39.7

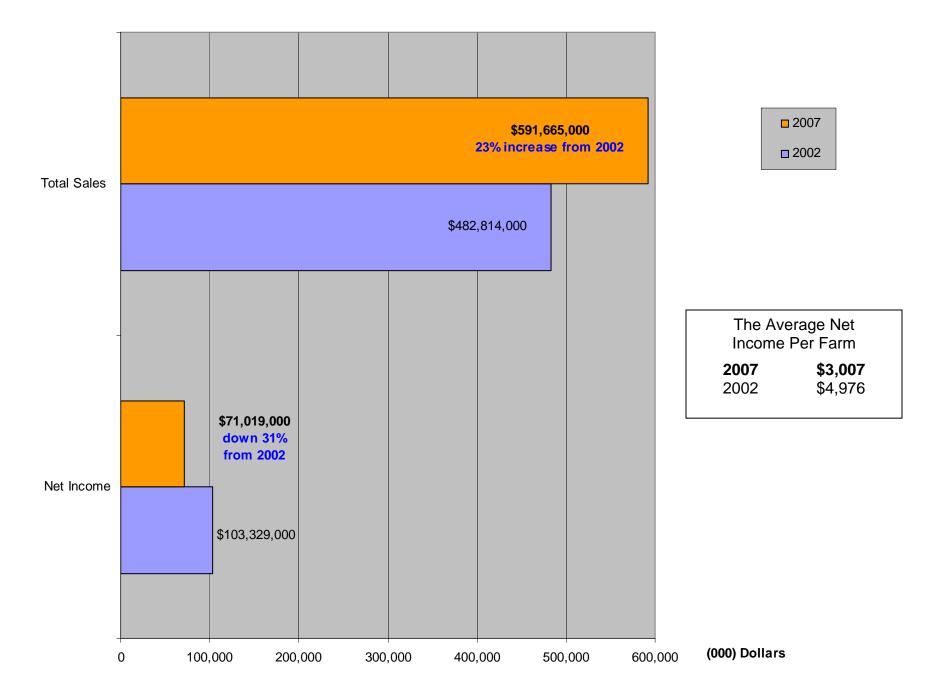

50.0

60.0

40.0

West Virginia Farm Production Expenditures, Selected Items and Percent Change

West Virginia Total Sales, Net Income and Average Net Income Per Farm, 2007 and 2002

Other West Virginia Census Data Facts (2007)

Farms employed 9,738 workers with a $32,794,000 payroll 85 farms hired migrant workers in 2007 39% of farms had more that one operator 84 farms used 2,158 acres for organic production 132 farms were converting 3,805 acres to organic production 29% of the farm operators in West Virginia are women Estimated total market value of land and buildings: $8,819,799,000 Average per farm (market value of land and buildings) $373,435 1,011 farms produced and sold value-added products 5,455 farms practiced rotational or management intensive grazing 8,470 farms had a historic barn built prior to 1960 Farms with horses, at 6,927 increased 11 percent from 2002 Number of farms with goats increased 50 percent from 2002 to 2,136 Goat inventory at 27,946 increased 60 percent from 2002

y at 27,946 increased 60 percent from 200