

PC Handout
 October 29, 2012
 10/31/12

300 Area Public Involvement Planning

These are activities that were discussed on a stakeholder call on Oct. 25, 2012. The objective of sharing this list of information is to identify which activities would be useful for the upcoming cleanup decision in the 300 Area.

Potential Activities	Potential Dates	Potential Locations	Groups to help with Planning/Advertising
Set up information tables at a shopping mall, public libraries, coffee shops. Provide comment forms for people who want to provide written comments then or mail them at a later date.	Right before and/or during the first part of the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
Share information at standing meetings (Rotary Club, Hanford Speakers Bureau, etc)	Right before and during the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
*Suggest one or two agency representatives
Host informational session in conjunction with the February HAB meeting	Feb. 6 or 7, 2013	Richland, WA. (same hotel or different location as meeting?)
Host workshops that promote Q&A and educational sharing of information on the 300 Area	Before and/or during the public comment period

Advertise 300 Area Proposed Plan public involvement activities and public comment period on college campuses	Right before and during the public comment period (Feb. 2013)	WSU-TC, CBC, (others?)
Share information in classrooms (colleges, high schools) *Suggest one or two agency representatives	Right before and during the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
Use website to provide graphical information (easy to read maps) and answers to questions of interest to the general public	Before and during the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
Use short videos to describe the proposed cleanup and address questions on interest to the general public	Before and during the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
Host webinar (would be useful if people cannot attend a face-to-face meeting/workshop)	During the public comment period (Feb. 2013)
Public Meetings with formal public comment			