What is a telephone seminar?

This 90-minute Web and telephone seminar allows an unlimited number of people to listen to OCC experts and to discuss with them their experiences and policy imperatives over individual telephones or with colleagues on speaker-phones. The experts' interaction with you, the listener, will make the program a valuable learning experience and enjoyable to listen to. And you can ask questions from wherever you are.

There is no rush-hour traffic, no parking, no travel time or expenses. You can remain in the office and share information with a large group of colleagues. A moderator guides the presentation and the open forum, much like participating in a talk-radio program.

Welcome by
John Dugan,
Comptroller of the Currency

Participants will gain insight into how:

- CRA regulatory changes affect your bank
- Small banks gain from the CRA revision
- CRA revisions open up rural investment opportunities for all banks
- The OCC will recognize banks' efforts in disaster areas

This telephone seminar will feature:

- New CRA examination procedures and interagency guidance
- Help for determining whether your bank should be examined as an intermediate small bank or a large bank
- A discussion of how the new definition of community development benefits all banks
- A discussion of small business and small farm loan data collection requirements and options
- Tips and resources for planning your next CRA examination

Seminar panel:

Ann Jaedicke
*Deputy Comptroller
Compliance Policy Division*

Calvin Hagins
*Director
Compliance Policy Division*

Mike Bylsma
*Director
Community and
Consumer Law Division*

Karen Tucker
National Bank Examiner and Senior Compliance Specialist
