

Sustainability and U.S. Competitiveness Summit

October 8, 2009

Herbert C. Hoover Building
(Department of Commerce Headquarters)

1401 Constitution Ave. NW
Washington, DC

Featuring Opening Remarks from:
U.S. Department of Commerce Secretary
Gary Locke

With a Keynote Presentation by:

Andrew Winston

Co-Author of Green to Gold

This will be your opportunity to hear from government and industry leaders about what is being done to support sustainable business practices and enhance U.S. competitiveness. You will also have the opportunity to network and provide individual feedback on future government efforts.

To RSVP for this no-cost Summit, please email susmanuf@mail.doc.gov or call Bill McElnea at 202-482-2831

Sustainability and U.S. Competitiveness Summit

Summit Agenda

-
-
-
-
- 8:30-9:00 Registration (Commerce Lobby, 14th Street Main Entrance)
- 9:00-9:15 Opening Remarks: U.S. Department of Commerce Secretary Gary Locke
- 9:15-9:30 Remarks from Gary Guzy, Deputy Director and General Counsel for the White House Council on Environmental Quality
- 9:30-10:00 Presentation of Work Completed Under the Department of Commerce's Sustainable Manufacturing Initiative
- 10:00-10:30 Coffee Break and Federal Program Booth Exhibitions
- 10:30-11:00 OECD Sustainable Manufacturing Metrics Presentation (Speaker: Michael Bordt, OECD)
- 11:00-12:00 Keynote Speaker: Andrew Winston, Co-Author of "Green to Gold"
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-2:15 Roundtable Discussion Groups - Hearing from our Stakeholders
- 2:15-2:45 Coffee Break and Federal Program Booth Exhibitions
- 2:45-4:00 Roundtable Discussion Groups (Cont.) - Hearing from our Stakeholders
- 4:00-4:30 Roundtable Moderator Readouts
- 4:30-4:45 Closing Remarks from Acting Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Manufacturing and Services, Mary Saunders