Rural Residents' Perceptions of Environmental Activities at the Nevada Test Site to be Discussed During Community Advisory Board Meeting

Results from a University of Nevada, Las Vegas study examining rural residents' perceptions of environmental activities at the Nevada Test Site (NTS) will be discussed during the November 18, 2009 Community Advisory Board (CAB) for Nevada Test Site Programs meeting. Dr. Helen Neill of the Greenspun College of Urban Affairs at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas will provide a briefing and answer questions regarding the specifics of the survey results.

The 5:00 p.m. meeting will be at the Frank Rogers Auditorium, 755 East Flamingo Road, Las Vegas, Nevada and will also include updates from the various CAB committees.

The CAB is a federally-chartered Department of Energy (DOE) advisory board made up of 13 Southern Nevada residents. CAB members meet bi-monthly to study and discuss environmental activities that take place at the Nevada Test Site and provide recommendations to the DOE Nevada Site Office Environmental Management Program.

All CAB meetings are open to the public and public participation is encouraged. For additional information on CAB meetings or activities, visit the CAB website at www.ntscab.com or call (702) 657-9088.
