MEMORANDUM FOR HENRY KISSINGER
FROM THE PRESIDENT

25X1

Billy Graham told me of the fine work that [redacted] was doing with some of the tribes in Laos, Cambodia and the northern part of South Vietnam. Run a check on him and give me a report as to how effective he is. Graham tells me that his missionary friends say that these tribes, of which our own Laotian irregulars are a part, are our main bulwark against Communist influence in that part of the world.
