

Collaboration –
THE* Key to Increasing Affordable Housing in Your Community

Office of Community Planning and Development
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

I. What YOU Should Know

- A. Types of HUD funding available to the public
- B. Methods for acquiring each type of funding
- C. WWW.hud.gov

II. Types of HUD Funding

A. Competitive (Discretionary) Funds

- a. Agency submits application directly to HUD HQ
- c. Application is reviewed, rated and *ranked
- d. Funding decision is made

Types of HUD Funding (Cont'd)

B. Formula (Block Grant or Entitlement Funds)

III. Competitive Funds

- A. Funded through Congressional annual budget process.
- B. Notice of funding availability (NOFA) published after budget approved.
- C. General guidance in General Section.
- D. Specific program guidance in Program Section.

E. HUD's Transformation Initiative/2011 Fund

A. Catalytic
Investment
Competition
Grant

B. Sustainable
Communities
Planning Grants

C. Housing & Services for Homeless
Persons

D. Choice Neighborhoods

IV. Formula/Entitlement Funding Programs

- A. Community Development Block Grant
(CDBG)
- B. HOME Investment Partnership
- C. Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS
- D. Emergency Shelter Grants

V. Eligible Activities

- A. Purpose – Benefit low and moderate income persons.
- B. CDBG funds may be used for extensive list of eligible activities
 - acquire real property
 - relocation and demolition
 - rehabilitation of residential and non-residential structures
 - public facilities
 - public services
 - economic development

Eligible Activities (Cont'd)

D. HOME funds may only be used to produce affordable housing for low-moderate income persons/families.

(1) homebuyer assistance

(2) rehabilitation for owner-occupants

(3) rental housing production

(4) tenant-based rental assistance

(TBRA)

VI. Qualifying for State Formula Funding

A. CDBG

-City or County legal applicant

B. HOME

-City or County legal applicant

-CHDOs may apply for 15% set-aside

VII. Increasing Affordable Housing in Your Communities

A. Available resources?

a. Housing construction

i. HOME funds

ii. CHDO set-aside

iii. Competitive grants

b. Infrastructure and other public facilities

i. CDBG

c. Economic Development

i. CDBG

Affordable Housing in Your Communities

C. Public – Private partnerships:

- a. Can city apply for HOME/CDBG funds on same project as County and CHDO?
If you can, you greatly expand your individual capacity.

Affordable Housing in Your Communities

- City can access HOME funds to purchase land and engage in new construction, identifying CHDO as contractor
- County can access HOME funds to purchase land and engage in new construction, identifying CHDO as contractor
- CHDO can apply for 15% set-aside funds
- Non-profit can apply for RHED grant

Affordable Housing in Your Communities

- City can apply for CDBG funds to put in infrastructure
- County can apply for CDBG funds to put in infrastructure
- Can a non-profit apply for and receive Housing Counseling funds to help people become more financially stable?

