ERRATA

1. Change date of aerial victory to read 8 Jan 73 in the entries for Howman, Paul D (p. 7), Kullman, Lawrence W (p. 8), and last entry on p. 26. (Seventh Air Force's Enemy Aircraft Claims Evaluation Board originally confirmed this victory for 7 Jan 73 Zulu /Greenwich/ time. However, the actual local time was 0230 hours, 8 Jan 73.)

2. Full credit (1.0) was awarded to both members of an F4D aircrew for the MIG-21 aerial victory of 11 May 72, per Pacific Air Forces Special Order GA-30, 15 Jul 74. Individual data as follows: Cpt Stephen E Nichols, R-237-74-0558, 555 TFS, 432 TRW, AC; and 1Lt James R Bell, R-275-46-0087, 555 TFS, 432 TRW, WSO.

a. Therefore, all references to the aerial victory by Seventh Air Force on 11 May 72, and references indicating that no individuals were credited for this victory (pp. iv, sixth sentence; 14, last entry; 23, second entry; and 27) should be eliminated.

b. This also changes other parts of the study, notably p. iv, first and third sentences (207 individuals now credited; 108 victories by two-man aircrews); p. 2 (regarding PACAF Special Orders cited in narrative and footnote); p. 3 (where data about Bell may be inserted); p. 10 (where data about Nichols may be inserted); and p. 27 (where 555 TFS should now show 24 MIG-21s and 39 total, where Seventh Air Force entries should be eliminated, and where 432 TRW should show 30 MIG-21s and 36 total).

Since the beginning of World War I it has been the custom and practice of the U.S. Air Force to award credits to individual members of the service for the enemy aircraft they have destroyed in aerial combat. This study is a tabulation of U.S. Air Force aerial victories in the war in Southeast Asia. It has been prepared by Mr. Charles A. Ravenstein of The Albert F. Simpson Historical Research Center (AU), the Air Force agency responsible for determining the combat credits of Air Force units and personnel.*

In October 1971 the Historical Research Division (AU) and the Office of Air Force History (Hq USAF) jointly published "A Preliminary List" of aerial victories to that time. That publication divided aerial victories between aircrew members of dual-place fighters, giving one-half credit to each. This present study follows a policy established in August 1972, retroactive to the entry of the F-4 aircraft into Southeast Asian operations. Based on "a close analysis of the team effort required to achieve a MIG kill in a dual-place fighter" the Chief of Staff, USAF, approved "an Air Force policy of crediting each aircrew member with one full kill for each aircraft destroyed." One effect of this change has been to create "aces" who would not have gained that unofficial status under the previous procedure of dividing credits between crew members of dual-place fighters. Captain Charles B. Debellevue, a Weapons Systems Officer who received credit for the destruction of six enemy aircraft (and thus became the top scorer of the war), would have accrued only three credits under the original procedure.

This study supersedes the preliminary list of 1971, which should be destroyed.

*The Historical Research Division (predecessor of the present AFSHRC) has published the following studies on victory credits of earlier wars: Study No. 73, A Preliminary List of U.S. Air Force Aces, 1917-1953 (January 1962); Study No. 81, USAF Credits for the Destruction of Enemy Aircraft, Korean War (June 1963); and Study No. 133, U.S. Air Service Victory Credits, World War I (June 1969). Victory credits for World War II are still being tabulated by the Center.

USAF Historical Study No. 73, A Preliminary List of U.S. Air Force Aces, 1917-1953, points out that although the term "ace" came into use in World War I for those aircrew personnel credited with at least five victories over enemy aircraft, the title has never been awarded officially by the Air Service, Air Corps, Army Air Forces, or U.S. Air Force. So far as the Air Force is concerned, there are no aces. Nevertheless, the Air Force does not prohibit unofficial use of the title.

The credits for the 137 aerial victories have been awarded to 205 individuals. Pilots of single-place F105D aircraft earned 25 of the victories. Two-man aircrews of F4C/D/E and F105F aircraft earned 107 of the victories. Gunners aboard B52D aircraft scored 2 of the victories. For 2 more victories the credit was divided between F105F and F4D aircrews in one instance and between two F4E aircrews in the other. One credit (earned by one or more F4D aircrews) was not awarded to any individual. There were numerous claims for the destruction of enemy aircraft which were never confirmed and are not included in this study. Finally, this study includes only those aerial victories earned by military personnel while under Air Force control and does not include aerial victories earned by USAF personnel while serving with another service. Aerial victories such as the MIG17 claimed by Air Force pilot Major John P. Heffernan, while serving with the U.S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise, properly belong to the other service.

Two major and two minor tabulations comprise this study. An alphabetical listing of all persons credited is the first, and a chronological presentation is the second of the major tabulations. They are followed by data on the distribution of credits by unit and among individuals with two or more full credits.

Comments or questions concerning this study may be addressed to The Albert F. Simpson Historical Research Center, Maxwell AFB, AL 36112.

ALPHABETICAL LIST 1
CHRONOLOGICAL LIST 15
DISTRIBUTION OF CREDITS AMONG UNITS 27
INDIVIDUALS WITH TWO OR MORE AERIAL VICTORIES 28

ALPHABETICAL LIST

Eleven columns are used to present data relating to credits for aerial victories:

Name. Individuals, last name first. Non-USAF personnel are indicated by parenthetical service abbreviation.

Rank. Abbreviations are employed as follows: Col - Colonel; LtC - Lieutenant Colonel; Maj - Major; LtCdr - Lieutenant Commander (USN); Cpt - Captain (USAF and USMC); 1Lt - First Lieutenant; SSgt - Staff Sergeant; and A1C - Airman First Class.

Serial Number. The Air Force switched from the use of Air Force serial numbers to the use of Social Security numbers midway in the war.

Squadron. The tactical fighter squadron of assignment or attachment for duty at the time of aerial victory. In a few instances personnel were assigned to one squadron, but on duty with another at the time of their aerial victory. The squadron flown with at the time of the victory earned the credit.

Higher Echelon. Echelon exercising command and/or operational control over the tactical fighter squadron. Many of the squadrons were in Southeast Asia on temporary duty from their parent wings. The echelon shown in this column may be either the parent wing, also located in Southeast Asia, or the echelon to which the squadron was attached. A majority of these echelons were tactical fighter wings (abbreviated TFW). Others shown are Seventh Air Force (abbreviated 7 AF), 2d Air Division (abbreviated 2 AD), 432d Tactical Reconnaissance Wing (abbreviated TRW), and 307th Strategic Wing (abbreviated SW).

Crew Position. Abbreviations are: AC - Aircraft Commander; EWO - Electronics Warfare Officer; G - Gunner; P - Pilot; and WSO - Weapons Systems Officer.

USAF Aircraft. The F105D was a single-place fighter. The F105F and all F4 types were dual-place fighters. All aircrew personnel of fighter planes received credit, but for the two aerial victories by B52D gunners, only the gunners themselves received credit.

Enemy Aircraft.

Date. The date of the aerial victory.

Credit. The credit or portion of a credit awarded.

Order Number/Year. All but one of the orders were published by Seventh Air Force. A final order, closing up loose ends, was published by Pacific Air Forces.*

*In cases where original orders were amended, the latest order is cited. The Seventh Air Force Special Orders, in their order of issuance, are: G-1032, 18 Jul 1967; G-1033, 18 Jul 1967; G-1091, 26 Jul 1967; G-1441, 16 Sep 1967; G-1967, 10 Nov 1967; G-2188, 7 Dec 1967; G-310, 28 Jan 1968; G-311, 28 Jan 1968; G-876, 19 Mar 1968; G-877, 19 Mar 1968; G-0680, 18 Mar 1972; G-1191, 30 May 1972; G-1192, 30 May 1972; G-1761, 10 Aug 1972; G-1762, 10 Aug 1972; G-1927, 24 Aug 1972; G-1928, 24 Aug 1972; G-2039, 18 Sep 1972; G-2040, 18 Sep 1972; G-2041, 18 Sep 1972; G-2042, 18 Sep 1972; G-2043, 18 Sep 1972; G-2044, 22 Sep 1972; G-2045, 8 Oct 1972; G-2046, 27 Oct 1972; G-2047, 4 Nov 1972; G-2251, 19 Nov 1972; G-2252, 23 Nov 1972; G-1, 8 Jan 1973; G-2, 27 Jan 1973; and G-3, 12 Feb 1973. The single Pacific Air Forces Special Order is GA-1, 2 Jan 1974.

CHRONOLOGICAL LIST*

Ten columns are used to present data relating to credits for aerial victories:

Date. The date of the aerial victory. When two or more aerial victories are shown for the same date, the earliest is shown first and the latest is shown last.

Enemy Aircraft.

USAF Aircraft.

Call Sign. The USAF aircraft radio call sign, when known.

Squadron. Tactical fighter squadron of assignment or attachment for duty at the time of the aerial victory.

Higher Echelon. Echelon exercising command and/or operational control over the tactical fighter squadron.

Rank and Name. The rank and name of aircrew personnel. Due to space limitations, the serial number is not shown, but may be found by referring to the alphabetical list.

Crew Position.

Credit. The credit or portion of a credit awarded.

Order Number/Year.

*See Alphabetical List, p. 1, for more complete discussion of the various entries.
