

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

BIOGRAPHY

Angelique Crumbly Acting Assistant to the Administrator, Bureau for Management

---

Ms. Crumbly is a management professional with 20 years of experience in the public sector. She is a member of the U.S Government Senior Executive Service and is currently Acting Assistant to the Administrator, Bureau for Management, at the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) in Washington, DC.

As the head of the Bureau for Management, Ms. Crumbly has oversight of the Offices of the Chief Information Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Acquisition and Assistance, Management Policy and Budget & Performance, and Management Services, with a staff totaling approximately 1,040.

In building her public service career, Ms. Crumbly has served in key positions throughout USAID, including as a Procurement Analyst and Contract Specialist in the Office of Acquisition and Assistance, as Chief of the Policy and Technical Division in the Office of Food for Peace, as Senior Advisor to the Agency Counselor and Officer-in-Charge of the Management Bureau, as Director of the Office of Management Policy, Budget and Performance (MPBP), and most recently, as the Senior Deputy Assistant Administrator in the Bureau for Management. Each position has added more depth to her strategic organizational vision, which she has used to achieve management goals.

A senior executive with an outstanding record of success in the fields of procurement, information technology and budget, Ms. Crumbly has led management reviews, cost savings, and streamlining initiatives resulting in the creation of sound business policies and management systems. She is responsible for managing the formation of the Agency's operational budget and execution of the agency's programmatic budget which, when combined, total approximately $14 billion. Her leadership at USAID has produced effective business solutions resulting in streamlined and innovative humanitarian assistance and development programs.

Beyond her USAID office, Ms. Crumbly has been very active in many community activities, including serving as Vice Chair of her Church Council, and Chairperson of the Church's 100th Anniversary Committee. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in International Politics from George Washington University and a Master's Degree in Public Management from Georgetown University. Her accolades include several Honor Awards from the U.S. Agency for International Development.