

SAM BRINKLEY
VICE PRESIDENT
HOMELAND & INTERNATIONAL SECURITY SERVICES OFFICE
WACKENHUT SERVICES, INCORPORATED

Mr. Brinkley has wide ranging background in security and training. He is a retired Marine infantry officer who commanded at the platoon through battalion levels. Additionally, his experience includes wide-ranging staff and training assignments. Between 1991-1995, Mr. Brinkley served as a Security Specialist/Special Project Officer for the Assistant Administrator for Civil Aviation Security, Federal Aviation Administration; his duties included support to the agency's Federal Air Marshal Program and supporting R & D programs. After a brief time on the staff, Science Committee, House of Representatives in 1995, he joined Wackenhut Services, Incorporated (WSI), as the Special Response Team (SRT) Commander, Savannah River Site, Department of Energy (DOE); also, he has served as Chairman, SRT Quality Panel, for DOE's Office of Safeguards and Security (OSS).

Mr. Brinkley joined the Office of the Coordinator for Counterterrorism (S/CT), Department of State, in August 1999 as the Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) Policy Advisor. He focused on the CT policies and engagements necessary to strengthen the international will to respond to a WMD terrorist incident. After the designation of the Homeland Security Council on October 8, 2001, Mr. Brinkley added the identification of the international implications of a domestic WMD terrorist incident to his portfolio. As part of those duties, Mr. Brinkley planned, participated in, and conducted numerous policy development meetings, exercises, and tabletop seminars with senior level US and international leaders. Between March 2003 and February 2004, he was a member of the professional staff, Aviation and Transportation Security Team and Border Security Team, National Commission on Terrorist Attacks Upon the United States (9-11 Commission).

Mr. Brinkley was promoted to Vice President, WSI, in August 1998 and has responsibility of the corporate operations involving NASA, Homeland Security, and overseas. Additionally, he provides counterterrorism consulting services to several large urban area police departments.

He is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger, Jumpmaster, and Advanced Infantry Officer Courses. Also, he is a graduate of the College of Naval Command and Staff, Naval War College. His personal awards include the Bronze Star, Combat Action Ribbon, and Vietnam Service Medal. In 1979, he was selected as the first recipient of the Leftwich Trophy for Outstanding Leadership for the U.S. Marine Corps.

Mr. Brinkley is a graduate from Valdese High School, Valdese, NC; the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; and he has Masters degrees in Personnel Management, Troy State University; and National Security and Strategic Studies, Naval War College.