

Christina Schneider – BIO

Chief Financial Officer for Purcell Construction Corp. a Watertown, New York based General Contractor and Construction Management Firm. The company performs industrial, commercial and federal construction projects.

Christina oversees the general accounting operations and spearheads marketing efforts for the company. She holds a B.S. Degree in Finance from Clarkson University, Potsdam, NY and has been employed by the company for the past 16 years.

She serves as a Director of the Associated General Contractors of New York State and is currently the Vice President of the Building Division.

Christina is married, has two children and resides in a small community in rural Upstate New York.