

William H. Campbell III
Director of Operations
Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller)
U.S. Department of Defense

Mr. Campbell recently joined the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) as the Director for Operations. In this position, he has oversight of and budget policy development for all operation and maintenance accounts within the Department of Defense. These accounts include several appropriations and programs in support of international development and assistance. Additionally, Mr. Campbell has responsibility for the development of the Overseas Contingency Operations request, which funds operations in Iraq and Afghanistan. The FY 2010 President's budget request for all of these accounts exceeds $300 billion.

Mr. Campbell began federal service almost 28 years ago as a Presidential Management Intern for the Department of the Army at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. Since then, he has taken on a wide variety of challenging budget positions. His career has included positions overseas as the budget officer for U.S. Army Japan from 1988 to 1990 and in Germany as the Deputy Director for Resource Management for U.S. Army Europe from 2000 to 2003.

During his career, he served as a budget analyst for almost nine years with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) from 1991 to 1999. Through this tenure, he reviewed a wide range of appropriations from operation and maintenance accounts to procurement to research and development. He also managed the development of supplemental requests for operations in Bosnia and Kosovo.

Mr. Campbell's career with the Army included numerous positions within the Army Budget Office. He returned to the Army Budget Office in 2003 as the Deputy Director of the Army Budget. Most recently, Mr. Campbell was the Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Budget. He oversaw the development and execution of all Army appropriations over the last six years.

Mr. Campbell received the Presidential Rank Award, Distinguished, in 2008 and the Presidential Rank Award, Meritorious, in 2003. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and a Masters of Public Administration both from Georgia State University
