Lt. General Obering Addresses House Government Reform and Oversight Committee

Air Force Lt. General Henry A. "Trey" Obering, Missile Defense Agency director, appeared yesterday before the Government Reform and Oversight Committee of the House of Representatives to discuss a wide variety of missile defense topics including: testing, system acquisition, operational capabilities delivered to the Combatant Commands, and near-term and long-term development and fielding efforts. He also provided information to the Committee about the current state of the missile defense program and the fact that in 2007 the Missile Defense Agency had the most successful and productive year in the history of the missile defense program.
