Re: Speaking Engagement, Tuesday, October 19, 1993
Brookings Washington Seminar for MIT Senior Executives on Federal Government Policy and International Relations

Dear Ms. Kelly:

If possible, we were wondering if Ms. Rasco could speak from 2:00-3:00 p.m. on the above date instead of from 2:30-3:30 p.m. as we had originally arranged. Joseph Stiglitz's office has reserved Room 324 OEOB for the group.

Please confirm if this change is possible in her schedule. I will be out of town on a conference until September 27, but you can speak with Barbara Littell, the Program Chair, at 202/797-6267. Thanks so much for your assistance.

Cordially,

Pamela F. Buckles
Meeting Planner
202/797-6280

P.S. For your reference, I am attaching a copy of the original invitation letter.

Dear Ms. Rasco:

From October 19-22, 1993, Brookings will conduct a four-day seminar on U.S. policymaking and issues in national and international affairs for forty senior executives enrolled in an advanced management program at the Sloan School of Management at MIT. During their Washington program, these executives (representing multinational companies and governmental institutions in 18 countries) will meet with members of congress, senior executive branch officials, officials of foreign governments, and academic experts in order to gain a better understanding of the U.S. governmental system and important issues on the national and international agenda. Enclosed is a preliminary list of the program participants.

I am writing to ask if you will meet with this group on Tuesday, October 19, from 2:30-3:30 p.m. at the Old Executive Office Building to discuss "The Administration's Domestic Policy Agenda." We ask that our guest speaker make initial remarks of 15 to 20 minutes with the rest of the time for questions and discussion. All sessions are informal and off-the-record.

On behalf of MIT and Brookings, we very much hope that you will be able to accept this invitation. If you have any questions, please call me at (202) 797-6267 or Pamela Buckles at (202) 797-6280.

Many thanks and best regards,

Sincerely,
