Dear Carol:

This letter is to confirm our meeting on ^{Wed}~~Thursday~~ afternoon, January 26th, 1994. I will be in your offices by 1:00 p.m.

I want to share my experiences working with states, communities, and foundations to develop comprehensive, outcome-based service strategies and how these might inform the Administration's work on welfare reform and enterprise zones and empowerment communities.

I remain enthusiastic about the Administration's efforts to reinvent government's response to families and neighborhoods and hope that my talents can contribute to this important work.

I look forward to talking with you on the 26th.

Sincerely,

Charles Bruner

Comments:

Happy New Year!

I am touching base with revised dates that Charles Bruner would be able to meet with Carol Rasco (with hopes of making an appointment for them to meet some time within the month of January). Some of Charles's available dates to travel to D.C. have changed since we last spoke (mid-December) -- please give me a call after reviewing the information. Hopefully we can set something up.

The afternoon of January 19th; between 8 a.m. - 10 a.m. or after 4:00 p.m. on January 20th; and finally, Charles would be able to travel to D.C. on either the 25th or 26th of January.
