MEMORANDUM

TO: Carol Rasco
The White House

FROM: C. Phillip Phil McDonald
Metro Atlanta Project PACT Coordinator

DATE: August 12, 1994

RE: Appointment Request

SSA [Redacted]
Pmed DOB [Redacted]
P6/b(6)

It is indeed a small world!

I will be in Washington August 15 - 17 attending the conference, "Solving Youth Violence: Partnerships That Work," held at the Grand Hyatt (202/582-1234). Because of some scheduling difficulties in our offices, I was not sure if I would be able to attend personally or send someone else. The conflict was not worked out until day. Hence, my delay in contacting you.

Shay Bilchik and others connected with Project PACT from USDJ are not aware that I am originally from Arkansas or that you and I know each other. Mayor Campbell knows that I am from Arkansas as do others on our staff, but they are not aware of any connection.

I thought you might find it helpful to hear from me and have my thoughts on Project PACT and the way that I see it operating here in Metro Atlanta which includes The City and five Counties. In my office PACT is referred to as "Putting Atlanta and the Counties Together." I would certainly like to know how you see Project PACT in the big picture now and down the road.

Ms. Rasco

Page Two.

You are busy I'm sure, and from looking at the conference agenda it doesn't look like there are many windows. However, my team is a good one and I do not mind slipping away for 30 to 40 minutes if you can find the time. I'm also good for early morning breakfasts or late late suppers. Whatever you can arrange would please me -- your place or mine.

I'll be coming up on Sunday for a reception at 6:00 PM, and I'll be staying at the Grand Hyatt. You may contact me there.
