MEMORANDUM FOR ALL JOINT FORCE HEADQUARTERS DIRECTORS OF MANPOWER AND PERSONNEL

SUBJECT: Commander's Responsibilities for Responding to Allegations of Sexual Assault

1. References:

- a. Department of Defense Instruction 6495.02, Encl 5, Attach A1, 13 Nov 08
- b. Army Regulation 600-20, Chapter 8, Appendix G, 11 Feb 09
- c. Air Force Instruction 36-6001, Attachment 2, 29 Sep 08

2. Commanders have the responsibility to ensure every National Guard service member who reports a sexual assault is treated with the utmost respect and care throughout any investigative process. The Commander's Checklist has been developed as a tool to prevent further harm and victimization and to do everything possible to maintain readiness and retention. It is also designed to help ensure the appropriate balance between an alleged sexual assault victim's right to feel secure and the subject's right to due process under the law. The checklist details the actions to be taken in the event a commander receives a report of a sexual assault.

3. Every reported sexual assault will be treated seriously and victims will be afforded dignity and fairness. Commanders will take immediate steps to ensure the victim's physical safety, emotional security, and medical treatment needs are met, and the appropriate civilian and military authorities are notified. Additionally, the victim's unit commander must take these necessary actions:

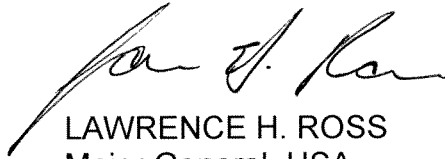

- a. Work with the commander of the accused (if different than the victim's commander), until there is a final legal disposition of the allegation or any physical safety and/or emotional security issues are resolved.
- b. Assess and determine the need for temporary reassignment of the victim or the accused being investigated. To the maximum extent possible, commanders should consider the victim's desires prior to any reassignment decision.

4. Questions concerning this memorandum should be addressed to LTC Alfranda Durr, Chief, Sexual Assault Prevention and Response, 703-607-1460, DSN 327-1460, or
