

Deepwater Horizon FOIA Responses

FOIA	Description
2010-2088	– Inspections on the Deepwater Horizon from March 15, 2010 to May 2, 2010
2010-2094	– Designation of Transocean as the responsible party
2010-2220	– All inspections concerning the Deepwater Horizon
2010-2223	– Personnel time, costs and expenses of the federal government in response to the spill
2010-2261	– Documents pertaining to dispersants used in the Gulf of Mexico
2010-2389	– USCG’s aerial response
2010-2479	– Declaration of the Deepwater Horizon incident as a Spill of National Significance
2010-2492	– Offers of assistance during the oil spill
2010-2751	– Jones Act waiver requests to the Coast Guard or other agencies for foreign vessels to operate in the Gulf of Mexico
2010-2752	– Copies of all complaints or requests that formed the basis for media exclusion zones around the protective boom and communication with BP concerning limitations of access
2010-2803	– Government produced and/or contracted photographs/ audio-video material collected by the Unified Command
2010-2824	– Documents on the use of Corexit in the Gulf of Mexico and when it will stop
2010-2886 & 2011-0057	– Notices of Designation issued to Transocean Holdings, Inc. and BP Exploration and Production, Inc. by the National Pollution Funds Center and their response

- 2010-2932 – Letter dated 28 April 2010 from the USCG to TransOcean Holdings, Inc.
- 2010-2957 – Aerial application of dispersants by armed forces or by private entities since April 20, 2010 and flight details
- 2010-3005 – Communications between the USCG, ExxonMobil, Shell Oil, and/or Conoco Phillips concerning the safety of oil rigs in the Gulf of Mexico and/or blowout preventers
- 2010-3006 – Communications or information that mention endangered or threatened species and species of concern in the Gulf region
- 2010-3008 – Documents regarding the use of C-130 aircraft to spread chemical dispersants
- 2010-3009 – All meetings and correspondence between the USCG, BP, and the EPA concerning directives on the use of dispersants
- 2010-3255 – List of all claims presented to the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund for any incidents occurring in the Gulf of Mexico from 01/01/1990 to the present