Veterans' Guide
to Benefits.gov

What is Benefits.gov?

As the official benefits website of the U.S. government, Benefits.gov is dedicated to connecting citizens to available benefit programs. With information on over 1,000 programs, the program you're looking for could be just a few simple steps away. Benefits.gov can help you learn what benefits you may be eligible to receive and how to apply for these benefits.

How can Benefits.gov help you?

As a veteran, you face unique circumstances and may qualify for assistance with your health care, service benefits, and access to job training, among other benefits.

What can you expect to find?

Here are just a few veterans' benefits for which you may be eligible:

- The Disabled Veterans' Outreach Program aims to develop jobs and job training opportunities for disabled and other veterans.

- The VA Home Based Primary Care Program is a unique home care program that provides comprehensive, interdisciplinary, primary care in the homes of veterans with complex medical, social, and behavioral conditions for whom routine clinic-based care is not effective.

- The Veterans' Employment & Training Service (VETS) Program provides veterans and service members with the resources and services to succeed in the 21st century workforce. These programs serve to maximize employment opportunities for veterans, protect their employment rights, and meet workforce demands with qualified veterans.

- …And more!

Get Started on your search today!

Start Now

Click Start Now on the homepage to begin answering questions about your current situation in our confidential Benefit Finder. You will be able to instantly view a list of benefits that you may be eligible for based on your responses.

Benefits.gov offers multiple ways to search for benefits. Click on the "Benefits" tab and browse by category, state or Federal agency to help you quickly find the government benefits you are looking for so you can start your application process and be on your way toward improving your life.

You can also search by typing a keyword or phrase into the Search box on the homepage. To find-tune your search, try the Advanced Search function.

BENEFITS.GOV
Your Path to Government Benefits