Corps of Engineers' Louisiana

Industry Day

Jan. 13, 2010

*Marriott at Lakeway
3838 Causeway Blvd.
Metairie, LA*

Each session will be followed by a one-hour outreach gathering to allow businesses the opportunity to interact with each other.

"Louisiana businesses play a vital role in our nation's economy," said New Orleans District Commander Col. Alvin Lee. "We want to give them every opportunity to compete in the federal business market."

To register for the Corps' Louisiana Industry Day, send an e-mail to pao@usace.army.mil and include the following information:

- Company name
- Company address and contact information
- Name of employee attending
- Preferred session to attend
- Please specify small or large business

For more information, call Michael Bloom at the New Orleans District's Office of Small Business Programs, 504-862-2627.

Louisiana businesses, both large and small, are invited to attend the Corps of Engineers' Louisiana Industry Day on Jan. 13 at the New Orleans Marriott at Lakeway, 3838 N. Causeway Blvd., Metairie, La.

Two sessions are scheduled to allow companies interested in working with the federal government to learn about the process involved in obtaining contracts to work on anticipated

Greater New Orleans Hurricane and Storm Damage Risk Reduction System projects.

The first session will be held from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. with registration beginning at 7:00 a.m. Because space is limited, registration preference for this session will be granted to Louisiana businesses. An identical second session will be held from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. with registration beginning at noon.
