

An Evening Reception with the Indian Trust Commission

February 11, 2013 7:00-9:00 PM

Samuel E. Kelly

Ethnic Cultural Center

The Secretarial Commission on Indian Trust Administration and Reform (known as the Indian Trust Commission or ITC) invites college students and young adults to this informal gathering with the hope of creating a dialogue about the federal government's handling of trust assets for American Indians and Alaska Natives.

The Commissioners welcome the opportunity to hear your ideas and recommendations to improve performance and service for trust beneficiaries.

Please join them for this insightful session.

Light refreshments will be served.

Registration not required.
