ESWE public transport – mobilizing Wiesbaden!

The ESWE Verkehrsgesellschaft public transport company is one of the largest in Hesse, an integral part of Wiesbaden city life that has become unimaginable without those blue-orange ESWE city buses. We have around 235 vehicles giving you a quick, convenient and inexpensive bus service into the heart of the Hessian capital, a service that around fifty million passengers a year have come to know and love.

An ESWE bus is usually only minutes away from anywhere in downtown Wiesbaden – a bus that will whisk you away to your favorite stores and fine restaurants in the city center, or to the many city events that take place over the year.

Wiesbaden's touristic highlights are also but a bus ride away with our convenient and reliable service, places to see such as the Kurhaus and Casino, the historical Neroberg Mountain Railway, or Biebrich Palace with its breathtakingly beautiful panoramic view over the Rhine.

We look forward to welcoming you soon on one of our buses – and to beautiful Wiesbaden!

MORE DETAILS HERE:

Into the city at prices anyone can afford

A single ticket with an ESWE bus costs € 2.50 for adults; children aged six to fourteen only pay € 1.50, but our special ESWE tickets will cost you even less:

Multi-journey tickets

Our multi-journey tickets called "Sammelkarte" give you a bonus package of five tickets in one for only € 9.85 for adults or € 6.25 for children; you can buy yours from any ticket machine or kiosk. Remember to stamp your multi-journey ticket in the bus's validator.

Day tickets, group tickets

A day ticket is ideal for travelling around Wiesbaden, as it will allow you to use as many ESWE buses as you want during the day at € 5.90 for adults or € 3.50 for children.

A group day ticket is your best choice if you plan to ride the buses together with your family, friends or colleagues – a whole day on all the ESWE buses for up to five people (adults and children) costs just € 8.80.

Day and group tickets are available anywhere you can buy ESWE tickets, so that includes the bus driver. All day tickets are valid on the day of purchase until the end of operation that day, which is around four the next morning.

Event tickets

Our ESWE buses are the ideal mode of transport to take you to one of Wiesbaden's festive events, and we provide cut-price event tickets for a number of occasions during the year – such as the "WeinfestTicket" at only € 3.95 for adults or € 2.50 for children to and from the popular Rheingau Wine Festival every August. Our "Veranstaltungsticket" event tickets are available anywhere you can buy an ESWE ticket, so that includes the bus driver. NB: Don't forget to stamp your ticket in the bus's validator. All event tickets are valid on the day of purchase until the end of operation that day, which is around four the next morning.

Good to know:

Each of the above tickets is also valid on all buses in Mainz run by the Mainzer Verkehrsgesellschaft (MVG) public transport company.

Neroberg and Neroberg Mountain Railway

(Line 1 – Nerotal stop)

Neroberg is literally the top of town – at 245 meters' elevation, Wiesbaden's own mountain gives you a wonderful view over the city together with exciting destinations for a day of fun at the Kletterwald rope course or Opelbad outdoor swimming pool. If you don't fancy walking up to Wiesbaden's most beautiful vantage point on foot, there's a very special way of reaching it that's just as historical and romantic – Germany's oldest water ballast-driven cog-and-rack railway, the famous Neroberg Mountain Railway. Leave the stress of everyday life behind as you prepare for a ride through times gone by. The original wagons in the city's blue and yellow livery have been grinding their way up and down the mountain since the railway service opened in 1888, Germany's legendary "Year of the Three Emperors".

The Kurhaus casino

(Lines 1, 2, 8, and 16 – Kurhaus/Theater stop)

Wiesbaden's Kurhaus casino – the most beautiful venue of its kind in Germany and one of the oldest in the world – is also of literary interest, in that Dostoevsky used it as the setting for his short novel "The Gambler". Located in the Kurhaus's former wine hall, the casino is open daily and features a unique casino atmosphere amidst neoclassical architecture. The casino offers a full range of activities including blackjack, roulette, poker, and slot machines – the latter located in the adjacent Kurhaus-Kolonnaden, which at 129 meters in length is not only Europe's oldest columnar hall, but also a magnificent work of architecture.

Biebrich Palace and Rettbergsaue island

(Lines 3, 4, 9, 14, and 38 – Rheinufer stop; lines 9 and 14 – Schloss Biebrich stop)

Imposing Biebrich Palace is located on the banks of the Rhine. This threewinged Baroque castle with a circular temple, a gallery, and a dome fresco was built from 1700 to 1744, and until 1866 was the residence of the counts and dukes of Nassau. The castle park, which dates back to 1811, features very old trees and is the venue for an important annual horse show.

Opposite the castle is Rettbergsaue, one of the Rhine's largest islands (2.8 kilometers long by 380 meters wide). Thanks to its abundant flora and fauna, almost all of Rettbergsaue is a nature reserve. The best way to get to the island is via the legendary "Tamara" ferry, which docks at a pier right in front of the castle. Rettbergsaue's large recreational area – featuring a camping site, playground, swimming beach and café, playing fields, and a barbecue area – is a wonderful place to visit, especially during the summer.
