

Enhancing Your Advice and Counsel Skills

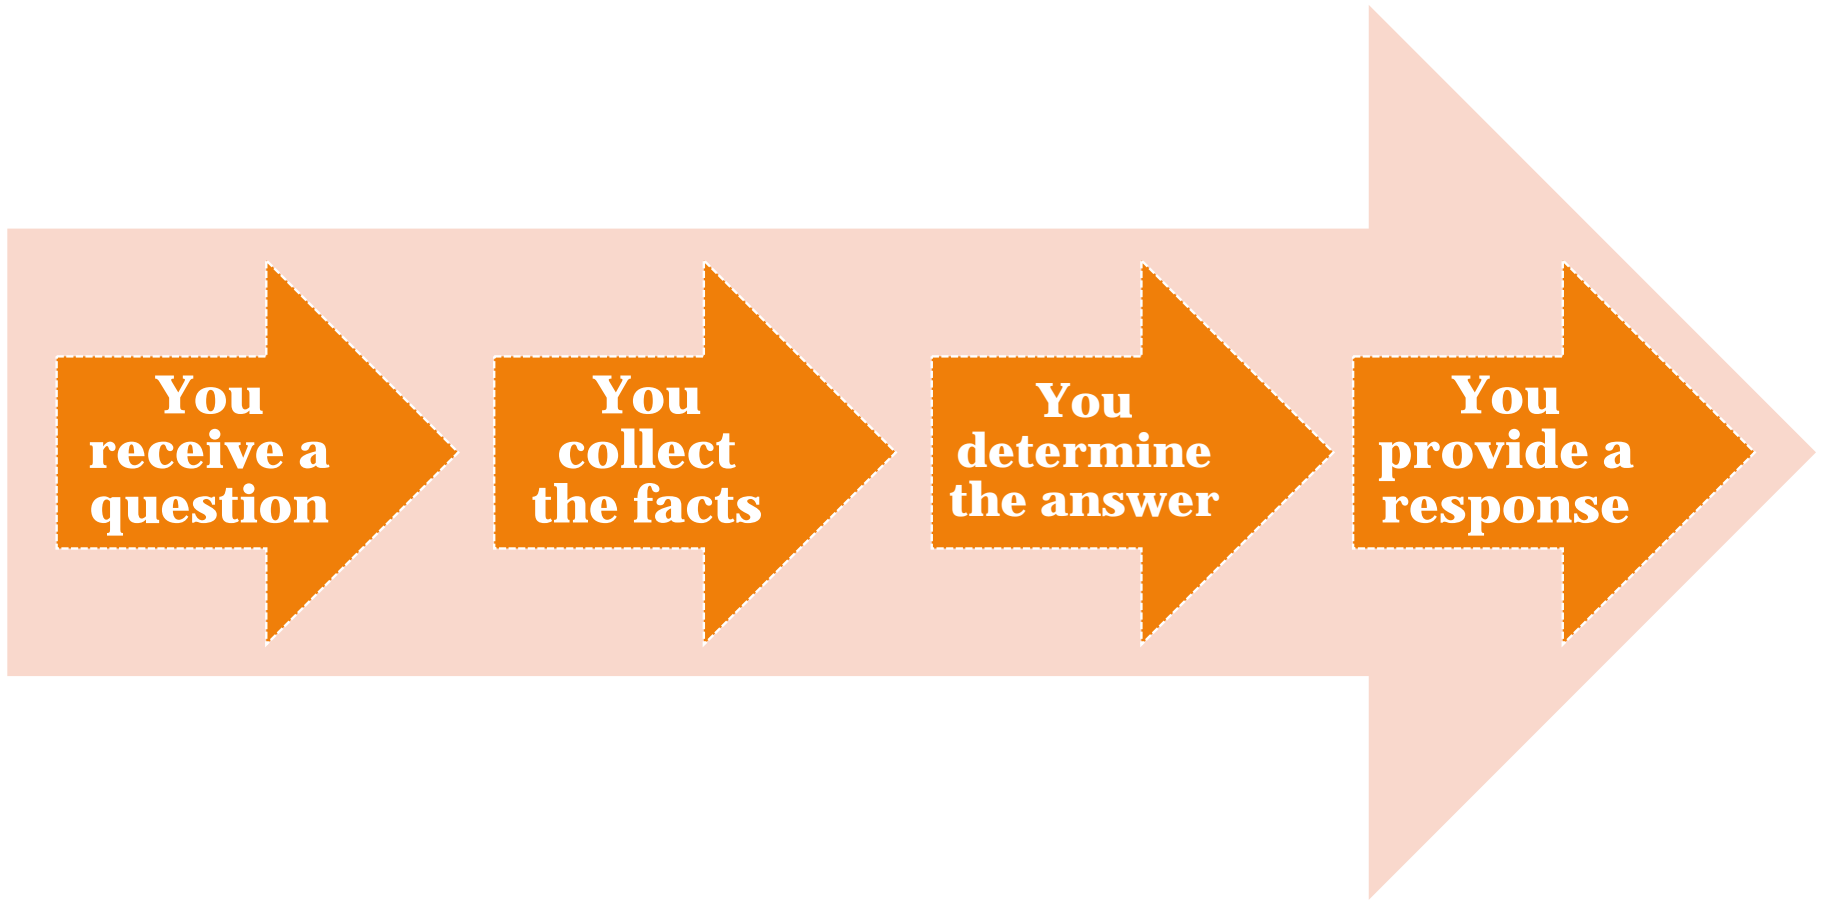

Stephanie Nonluecha
Senior Desk Officer
U.S. Office Of Government Ethics

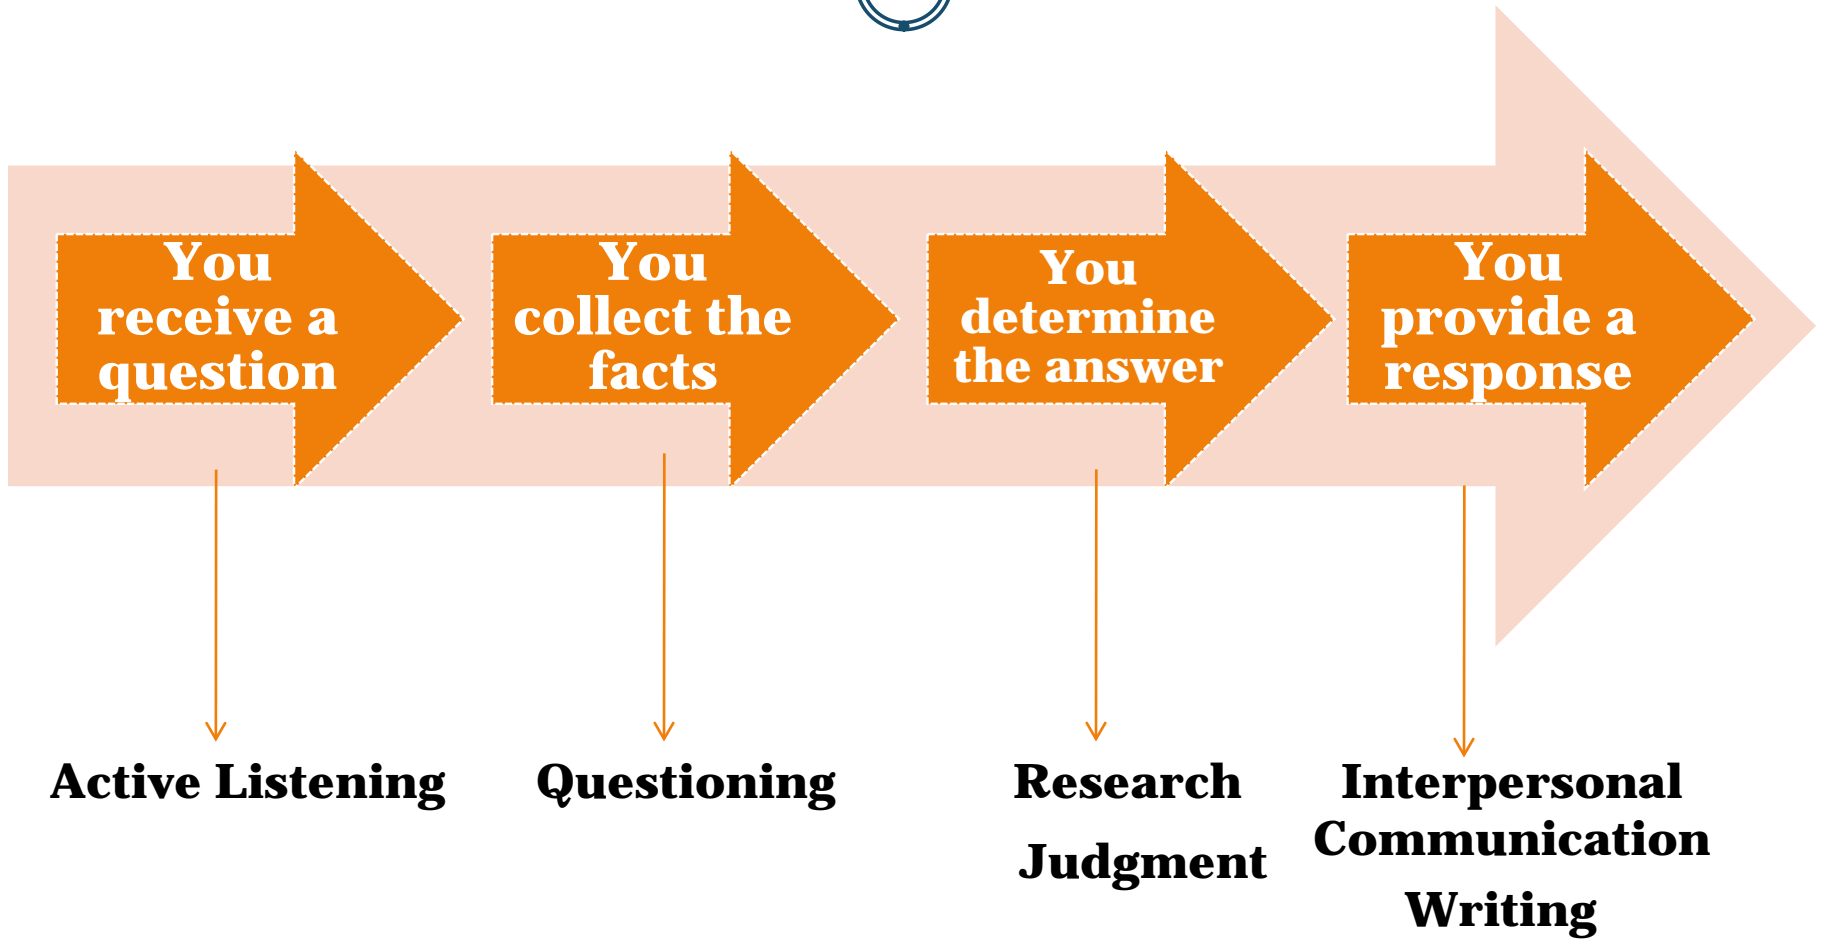

Nicole Stein
Lead Government Ethics Specialist
U.S. Office Of Government Ethics

-
- A corkboard with a white note and a yellow note pinned to it. The white note is pinned with a blue pushpin at the top left and a brown pushpin at the bottom right. The yellow note is pinned with a brown pushpin at the top left and contains a list of five steps.
1. Identify critical skills
 2. WHY
 3. Learn a few facts.
 4. Practice!
 5. Discuss strategies for improvement

LIFECYCLE OF AN ETHICS QUESTION

CRITICAL SKILLS

judgment

Question:

I'm going to lunch next week with the contractor who is working on our website. If he offers to pay for my lunch and it costs $22, can I accept?

QUESTIONS