

2-1-1 Texas can answer questions like these:

- Where can I find affordable, quality childcare?
- Without health insurance, how can I see a doctor?
- Where can I find affordable counseling?
- How will I care for my aging parent?
- Where can I go to escape an abusive relationship?
- Who can help my brother with his drug problem?

2-1-1 is a free, confidential information and referral hotline. Callers reach trained experts who have access to the most comprehensive database of community organizations, government agencies and nonprofits in Texas today. Information is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week and in more than 90 languages.

Service area includes Archer, Baylor, Clay, Cottle, Foard, Hardeman, Jack, Montague, Wichita, Wilbarger, and Young counties.

2-1-1 Texas is a public/private partnership of the North Texas Area United Way and the Texas Health and Human Services Commission.
