

Outcome Measures for Worksite Wellness Program Integration

Is there an agency process for employee input into planning and implementation of the following programs and services?		Yes	No
Healthy nutrition
Physical activity
Occupational health and safety (safety committees, complaint/request process)
Other wellness activities planning
Is management required to support wellness programs and initiatives?
Are supervisors required to support wellness programs and initiatives?
Are employees granted use of duty time for participation in wellness activities?
If yes,
How much time?
What frequency? (per week, pay period, other)
Is the time accounted for in a measurable way? (time card, log-in, other)

Is there an agency process for employee input into planning and implementation of the following programs and services?		Yes	No
Does the facility have Employee Health Promotion Program staff?
If yes,
Full time – Federal employee, contractor, or other
Number of staff
Part time – federal employee, contractor, or otl
Number of staff with collateral duty     (assigned as an extra duty on top o     normal position that is NOT a health <ul> <li>and wellness position)</li> <li>Number of staff with collateral duties related to health and wellness (narrative permitted)</li> </ul>
Is senior leadership regularly briefed on the pro-	ograms and services?
If yes,
How often?
What is included in the briefing?
Does the leadership recommend change as a result of the briefing?

