

LTC Thomas B. Hairgrove, Jr.

Lieutenant Colonel Thomas B. Hairgrove, Jr. received his commission and graduated from Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering. LTC Hairgrove also earned a Master of Science Degree in Engineering Management from the University of Missouri at Rolla and a Master of Military Arts and Science from the School of Advanced Military Studies at Fort Leavenworth. His military education includes: the Engineer Officers' Basic Course, the Engineer Officers' Advanced Course, the Combined Arms and Services Staff School, the Command and General Staff College, and the Advanced Military Studies Program. His assignments include: 3d Engineer and 10th Engineer Battalion, Fort Stewart, Georgia, as a Platoon Leader, Company Executive Officer, and Battalion S1; US Army Engineer School, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, as an Aide de Camp; 1st Armored Division Engineer Brigade, Bad Kreuznach, Germany, as an Assistant Brigade S3; 16th Engineer Battalion, Giessen, Germany, as the Assistant Brigade Engineer and Commander of A Company; National Training Center, Fort Irwin, California, as a Task Force Engineer Trainer, Engineer Battalion Battlestaff Trainer, and Brigade Battlestaff Trainer; US Army Engineer School as a Small Group Leader/Instructor for the Engineer Captains' Career Course; 1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kansas, as a G3 Plans Officer; 1st Engineer Battalion as the Executive Officer; and 1st Infantry Division as the Deputy G5 and Deputy G3.

LTC Hairgrove's awards and decorations include: the Bronze Star; the Meritorious Service Medal (3d award); the Army Accommodation Medal (3d award); the Army Achievement Medal (5th award); the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal; the Kosovo Campaign Medal; the Iraq Campaign Medal; the NATO Medal; the Parachutist Badge; and the Air Assault Badge.