These comments may be viewed on regulations.gov at the following link. We suggest viewing the comments by sorting them using the “ID” field. Records with multiple entries for one comment can thereby be identified as there will be two or more records using the same number, with the additional record(s) differentiated by the presence of a decimal “.1” (e.g., FINCEN-2009-0002-0002 and FINCEN-2009-0002-0002.1). The second record, with the decimal “.1” is usually the actual comment and will most likely be in the form of an attached Word or PDF document.
