

APPENDIX G

Members of Council's Turtle Advisory Committee (TAC)

Council's Turtle Advisory Committee (TAC)

The TAC members which reviewed the Council's sea turtle conservation measures include:

Name	Affiliation	Experience
George Balazs	NMFS-PIFSC	A leading expert in the field with over 35 years of sea turtle experience; Member of the sea turtle recovery team; Over 200 publications on sea turtle biology, ecology, health and disease.
Dr. Peter Dutton	NMFS-SWFSC	A leading expert in the field with over 25 years of sea turtle experience; Member of the sea turtle recovery team; Over 75 publications on sea turtle biology, physiology, population demographics, and genetics.
Dr. Jeffrey Polovina	NMFS - PIFSC	Chief, Ecosystem & Environment Investigations with over 30 years of experience; Published many peer reviewed publications on the North Pacific pelagic ecosystem and on the association between turtles and oceanic habitat; Currently acting Chief of NMFS-PIFSC.
Dr. Colin Limpus	Queensland Parks Authority	A leading expert in the field with over 40 years of sea turtle experience; Over 200 publications on sea turtle biology, physiology, ecology, and population demographics.
Dr. Milani Chalopuka	Ecological Modelling Services	A leading statistician and expert in sea turtle population modeling ; Published over 30 peer reviewed publication on sea turtle biology, population demographics and modeling.

Additional TAC members added since August 2003 include:

Laura Sarti Martinez	SEMARNAT, Mexico	A leading expert in sea turtles, in particular leatherback turtles, of Mexico and Central America. Over 40 peer reviewed publications.
Naoki Kamezaki	Sea Turtle Association of Japan	A leading expert in sea turtles, in particular North Pacific loggerhead turtles. Over 90 peer reviewed publications.
