

LTC Matthew J. Cody

LTC Matt Cody is a Distinguished Military Graduate from Northeastern University with a Bachelor Degree's in Biology and Philosophy and commissioned as an Armor Second Lieutenant. He also earned a Master's Degree from the University of Oklahoma and an MMAS from the School for Advanced Military Studies. His military education includes: Airborne School, Armor Officer Basic Course, Ranger, Infantry Maneuver Captains Career Course, the Command and General Staff College, and the School for Advanced Military Studies. His military assignments include 1st Battalion, 68th Armor Regiment, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, CO as a Tank Platoon Leader, Mortar platoon leader, and S3 Air; 2nd Battalion, 12th Cavalry Regiment, 2nd Brigade, 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, Texas as a Bravo Company and Headquarters and Headquarters Company Commander; JRMHC Hohenfels, GE as a Maneuver and BRT Observer Controller/trainer; 4th Infantry Division, Fort Hood, Texas as Maneuver Planner; 2nd Battalion, 8th Infantry Regiment, 2nd Brigade, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, CO as a BN XO, Brigade S-3 Operations Officer, and Brigade Executive Officer.

His operational deployments include: Operation Intrinsic Action 95-03, Operation Joint Forge, Bosnia 1999, and Operation Iraqi Freedom 05-07 and 08-10.

LTC Cody's military awards and decorations include: the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (4th Award), the Army Commendation Medal (2nd Award), numerous campaign and service medals; the Ranger Tab and the Parachutists Badge.