I.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) deems it appropriate and in the public interest that public administrative proceedings be, and hereby are, instituted pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (“Advisers Act”) against Isaac I. Ovid (“Ovid” or “Respondent”).

II.

In anticipation of the institution of these proceedings, Respondent has submitted an Offer of Settlement (the “Offer”) which the Commission has determined to accept. Solely for the purpose of these proceedings and any other proceedings brought by or on behalf of the Commission, or to which the Commission is a party, and without admitting or denying the findings herein, except as to the Commission’s jurisdiction over him and the subject matter of these proceedings, and the findings contained in Section III.3 below, which are admitted, Respondent consents to the entry of this Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, Making Findings, and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (“Order”), as set forth below.

III.

On the basis of this Order and Respondent's Offer, the Commission finds that:

1. Ovid was the Chief Executive Officer of Jadis Capital, Inc., a New York corporation ("Jadis Capital"), from May 2005 until his resignation in November 2005. During this time, Jadis Capital was the sole owner of Jadis Investments, LLC ("Jadis Investments"), a Delaware limited liability company and Uniondale, Long Island-based investment adviser registered with the Commission. Ovid, 29 years old, is a citizen and resident of Trinidad and Tobago.

2. The Commission's complaint, in the civil action entitled Securities and Exchange Commission v. Isaac I. Ovid, et al., 09 Civ. 1521 (E.D.N.Y.) (LDW), alleges that Ovid, along with six other individual defendants, participated in a fraudulent investment scheme, resulting in an overall investors loss of more than $12 million, by making numerous misrepresentations to encourage them to invest in two purported hedge funds - the Logos Multi-Strategy Hedge Fund I, LP ("Logos Fund") and the Donum Fund, LP ("Donum Fund"). Instead of investing the money as promised, according to the complaint, the defendants misappropriated millions of dollars to furnish their own lavish lifestyles with purchases of luxury cars, jewelry, clothing, meals, and expensive foreign travel. The Commission's complaint also alleges that Ovid, along with the other individual defendants and two defendant entities, improperly offered and sold securities when no registration statement was in effect as to such securities.

3. On March 5, 2010, Ovid pled guilty to conspiracy to commit securities fraud, in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 371 before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, in United States v. Isaac I. Ovid, et al., 09 Cr. 0216 (E.D.N.Y.) (JG). On August 30, 2010, a judgment in the criminal case was entered against Ovid. He was sentenced to a prison term of 60 months followed by three years of supervised release and ordered to make restitution in the amount of $12,334,614.41.

4. The criminal indictment to which Ovid pled guilty, United States v. Isaac I. Ovid, et al., 09 Cr. 0216 (E.D.N.Y.) (JG), alleged, inter alia, that Ovid made materially false and fraudulent representations and omitted material facts in soliciting investors for the Logos Fund, used his Jadis Capital corporate credit card to make unauthorized personal purchases, and, unbeknownst to the Logos Fund investors, used Logos Fund investor money to pay Jadis Capital's and Jadis Investments' operating and payroll expenses, as well as debts that Ovid owed to his other advisory clients. The indictment also alleged that Ovid made materially false and fraudulent representations and omitted material facts in soliciting investors for the Donum Fund.

IV.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission deems it appropriate and in the public interest to impose the sanctions agreed to in Respondent Ovid's Offer.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

Pursuant to Section 203(f) of the Advisers Act, Respondent Ovid be, and hereby is barred from association with any investment adviser.

Any reapplication for association by the Respondent will be subject to the applicable laws and regulations governing the reentry process, and reentry may be conditioned upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the satisfaction of any or all of the following: (a) any disgorgement ordered against the Respondent, whether or not the Commission has fully or partially waived payment of such disgorgement; (b) any arbitration award related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; (c) any self-regulatory organization arbitration award to a customer, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order; and (d) any restitution order by a self-regulatory organization, whether or not related to the conduct that served as the basis for the Commission order.

For the Commission, by its Secretary, pursuant to delegated authority.
