The Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) issued its Order Instituting Proceedings (OIP) on November 20, 2009, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). The Commission delivered or attempted to deliver the OIP to Respondents in a manner that complies with Rule 141 of the Commission's Rules of Practice. The time for filing Answers has expired and no Answers have been received.

On December 22, 2009, I required each Respondent to show cause, on or before January 11, 2010, why it should not be held in default and why the registration of its registered securities should not be revoked. The time for filing replies to the Order to Show Cause has expired and no replies have been received. Accordingly, Respondents are in default. See Rules 155(a) and 220(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. As authorized by Rule 155(a) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, the following allegations of the OIP are deemed to be true.

As discussed in more detail above, all of the Respondents are delinquent in their periodic filings with the Commission and have repeatedly failed to meet their obligations to file timely periodic reports. They have also failed to heed delinquency letters sent to them by the Division of Corporation Finance requesting compliance with their periodic filing obligations or, through their failure to maintain a valid address on file with the Commission as required by Commission rules, did not receive such letters.

Exchange Act Section 13(a) and the rules promulgated thereunder require issuers of securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file with the Commission current and accurate information in periodic reports, even if the registration is voluntary under Section 12(g). Specifically, Rule 13a-1 requires issuers to file annual reports and Rule 13a-13 requires issuers to file quarterly reports.

As a result of the foregoing, Respondents failed to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder.

IT IS ORDERED THAT, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrations of each class of the registered securities of Planet Entertainment Corp.; Polifly Financial Corp.; Pope Evans & Robbins, Inc.; Power Designs, Inc.; Prime Motor Inns LP; Pro Net Link Corp.; Prospect Group, Inc.; Prospect Park Financial Corp.; Providence Capital II, Inc. (n/k/a Lifelong.com, Inc.); Pudgie's Chicken, Inc.; and PVAXX Corp. are revoked.
