Kids to take over District April 28 on national Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day

What. Children get close look at the New Orleans District and engineering-related jobs. They will spend a day at the New Orleans District on Take Our Daughters and Sons to Work Day.

Who. Daughters, sons and other young guests of New Orleans District employees. Corps of Engineers employees.

When. Thursday, April 28, 2005, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Where. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, New Orleans District, 7400 Leake Avenue, New Orleans.

Why. The New Orleans District recognizes the potential in young girls and boys and is committed to helping them access and realize opportunities.

What's to see? The Federal Women's Program Committee is sponsoring a morning program and activities for 5th to 12th graders. A banking official, Dawn Breaux, will discuss the advantages of saving money, and Sally Ann Roberts, WWL-TV, will speak on this year's theme "Sharing Power and Possibility". The program continues with a discussion on Coastal Restoration and a visit to the district library to view Houma Indians crafts. In the afternoon, children will accompany their parents in the workplace.
