

Schools Serving Langley

There are two school systems serving Langley AFB. Main base housing residents attend Hampton City Schools, with 36 schools and approximately 23,000 students. For main base there are one elementary, one middle, and one high school serving as primary feeder schools. The nearby Bethel Manor housing area residents attend York County Schools, with 19 schools and approximately 13,000 students. Bethel Manor residents are serviced by two elementary, two middle and two high schools, depending on where you live in Bethel Manor.

There are many opportunities to expand educational opportunities by applying to a Magnet school to further challenge the talents of your children. There is also an extensive listing of private schools in the area for you to choose from. The area offers many options for education. We encourage you to explore all of your options.
